Top Of The Morning

WEATHER

It's going to be cold. The weather outlook today calls for continued cold temperatures with the expected high reading of a scant 12 degrees and the overnight low reading about 5 below zero. Thursday's forecast is about the same with a high reading near 14 degrees. The extended forecast through Monday indicates temperatures will average below normal with daily high readings in the mid 20s and the night time low readings in the teens. Snow flurries are expected Friday and Saturday and again the early part of the week. Winds today will be the north west 13 to 22 mph. Tuesday's 7 a.m. report: high 24, low 3, there was 0.16 inches of precipitation. The river level was 4.37 feet and rising.

KINZUA DAM REPORT

Pool level 1283.48 feet. Downstream temperature 34 degrees. The reading at the Warren gauge 4.37 feet.

PENNSYLVANIA

Prospects still seem slim for passage of long-pending legislation to create a statewide board of regents to administer the 14 state-owned colleges.

The Pittsburgh Board of Education refuses to permit an election to determine a collective bargaining agent for the city's 3,000 teachers, setting the stage for a strike that could cripple the school system.

John K. Tabor, secretary of Internal Affairs, an elective office in the process of being abolished, will be the new secretary of labor and industry.

Two downtown Pittsburgh banks are robbed within minutes and six hours later a man is arrested and charged with the holdups.

A primary fight for the Democratic nomination for U.S. Senate between incumbent Joseph S. Clark and John H. Dent is assured with the passing of the deadline for withdrawals.

Two prominent state officials—Adj. Gen. Thomas R. White and Guy W. Davis—died unexpectedly.

THE NATION

The House Ways and Means Committee votes to keep automobile and telephone excise taxes at their present levels through 1969 and to speed up the collection of corporate income taxes.

The administration agrees to let James L. Goddard testify before Congress on penalties for possession of LSD.

U.N. Secretary-General U Thant is reportedly ready to tell President Johnson that the North Vietnamese will discuss anything the United States wants if the bombing of the North is halted. They meet Wednesday in Washington.

H. Rap Brown, restricted from spreading his Black Power activities by a ban on his travel, is arrested for breaking the ban to speak in California.

THE WORLD

American infantrymen catch up with Viet Cong storming through Saigon suburbs and kill 123 in blazing, four-hour battle.

The South Vietnamese government has accelerated its partial mobilization scheme in the face of Communist attacks.

Prime Minister Pearson returns to Ottawa and reports his cabinet is split on whether to resign in the face of a no-confidence vote on an income tax surcharge.

SPORTS

Warren Area High School's basketball team blew a nine-point lead in the fourth quarter and lost to visiting Titusville in overtime, 79-76. The Rockets took advantage of some errant Dragon shooting to knot the score at 71-71 at the end of regulation time, then outscored the Blue and White in the extra three minutes for the victory. Page 13.

Sheffield's Wayne Swanson scored a record 45 points to highlight cage action in the county. Swanson's mark helped the Wolverines to a 111-65 romp over Ridgway. Youngsville tripped East Forest, 60-54. Eisenhower slipped past West Forest, 73-70, and Tidoute was drubbed by Pleasantville, 110-64. Page 13.

Powerful Erie Academy defeated Warren Area High School's swimming team in the Dragons' final meet of the season, 66-28. Mike Curren and Scott Daehoussen took the only first places for the locals. Page 13.

Beaty Junior High School's cagers routed Titusville's freshmen, 40-29. Page 13.

The TMO basketball team triumphed over Gold Star in a Taft Recreation League contest on Monday, 66-65. Page 12.

First round pairings in the NCAA basketball tournament were announced last night and three NIT entries were listed. Page 12.

The boycott of several African nations in the Summer Olympic Games at Mexico City became a definite possibility yesterday. Page 12.

Mrs. Lillian Hunter, right, principal of Irvinedale Elementary School, whose facial expression displays her emotion, was presented with a lifetime PTA membership and pin on behalf of the Irvinedale PTA Tuesday night. Mrs. Hunter has taught at Irvinedale since 1939 and is presently teaching the sixth grade class at the school. One of her favorite hobbies is her "Friendship Cupboard," filled with gifts and trinkets from former students and friends with a story relating to each. Making the presentation to Mrs. Hunter in recognition of her service is Mrs. James Walters. (Photo by Mahan)

North Viet 'Willing' to Talk If US Stops Bombing Country

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — U.N. Secretary-General U Thant was reported ready Tuesday to tell President Johnson the North Vietnamese are willing to discuss anything the Americans want if the United States will stop bombing their country. Diplomatic sources said Thant got that word from North Vietnamese he saw on his recent trip abroad and he would pass it along to Johnson when the two meet in Washington Wednesday. They said Thant was told specifically that the North Vietnamese would start the talks promptly, once U.S. military actions against North Vietnam ended, and that general military de escalation in South Vietnam could be one item on the agenda. But they also said the North Vietnamese still insisted the cessation of bombing be unconditional and turned down the U.S. demand that they not take advantage of any such cessation by stepping up infiltration into South Vietnam. Accordingly, diplomats generally did not believe Thant would persuade Johnson to stop the bombing. Some thought Thant himself did not expect to do so. They figured he had asked to see Johnson mainly because he had already seen the leaders of four other key countries in the last two weeks and wanted to get the president's views so that he would have a complete picture of the thinking on Vietnam. The secretary-general will call on the President at the White House at 11 a.m. He will lunch with Secretary of State Dean Rusk at the State Department afterward.

Two Pittsburgh Banks Robbed Within Minutes

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Two downtown banks were robbed within five minutes Tuesday and six hours later a man was arrested and charged with both holdups. In each robbery, a lone gunman walked up to the tellers and demanded money, then fled into the street crowded with shoppers. Tellers at both banks, only two blocks apart, described the bandit as glassy-eyed, leading police to believe he may have been under the influence of narcotics or alcohol. Kenneth Hetrick, 28, was arrested at his home in North Braddock about 5:30 p.m. Police and the FBI said they traced him through a taxi cab and detailed search of the neighborhood. Hetrick was charged with robbing the Pittsburgh National Bank, where hidden cameras filmed the holdup, and the robbery of the Union National Bank. The FBI said Hetrick was identified through pictures. Agents said most of the loot, totaling less than $5,500, was recovered. A guard at the Union National Bank, alerted by a teller who waved a white envelope, chased the robber. Police picked up a man three blocks away but filed no charges. The first bank hit was the Pittsburgh National. A short, bushy-haired man asked a teller for a money order. She was suspicious, turned on her camera, and sent him to another window. He was then sent to two other windows and each teller turned on the camera. Finally, the robber pulled "a small, black gun" and demanded money. She handed him $1,932, he stuffed it inside his coat and walked out the front door. Five minutes later, at 11:20 a.m., a man holding a handkerchief over his mouth poked "a small, black gun" at Dorothy Mamula in the Union National and demanded money. No one except the next teller noticed what was happening. She waved at a guard as the robber stuffed the cash in his coat and ran out the door. The bank said the robber got "less than $3,500."

Tabor Will Head Labor Dept.

HARRISBURG (AP) — John K. Tabor, secretary of internal affairs, was named by Gov. Shafer Tuesday to take over as head of the Department of Labor and Industry March 1. Tabor, 46, will succeed William J. Hart, who announced his resignation from the cabinet Friday to return to his former job with the United Steel Workers of America. Shafer said Tabor would serve as acting labor secretary until his nomination as secretary is confirmed by the Senate. The legislature is in recess until March 4. Once confirmed, Tabor would serve as acting secretary of internal affairs until legislation can be prepared and enacted to phase out that department from state government. Confirmation also would result in Tabor's salary being reduced from the $32,500 he receives as an elected official to the $25,000 received by most cabinet appointees. Tabor, a Pittsburgh lawyer, served as secretary of commerce under former Gov. William W. Scranton before being elected secretary of internal affairs in 1966. In the same election, voters approved a constitutional amendment authorizing the post to be abolished. Shafer said he would submit the necessary legislation this year. The descriptions given at both banks varied in some details but the main points were similar. The man was about 5-foot-5, medium to thin build with a dark topcoat and no hat or glasses. He was described as in his late 20s at one bank and about 35 at the other. The main difference was his hair. The teller at Union said he had long black hair. The tellers at Pittsburgh National said he had bushy, dark brown hair. There are no cameras at Union National.

Americans Kill 123 Viet Cong In Blazing Battle

SAIGON (AP) — American infantrymen caught up with a band of Viet Cong storming through Saigon's northeastern suburbs Tuesday and killed 123 in a blazing, four-hour battle. And northwest of the capital, government rangers said they killed 32 guerrillas in a gun battle near the Phu Tho cemetery. The fighting, coupled with a light rocket attack on Tan Son Nhut air base, came amid reports that another Communist drive on Saigon was in the offing. The Communist high command, thwarted in its initial efforts to seize Saigon at the lunar new year, was said to have called for leveling of the capital in attacks before the month is out. Rumors raced through Saigon of an impending Viet Cong assault in the early morning hours Wednesday as artillery barrages and air strikes rumbled in outlying areas. Flares lighted the sky and explosions could be heard clearly in the heart of the city. Private sources said they heard that up to two battalions of Viet Cong—perhaps 800 men—were in action west of the city. But military authorities said they had no word of any significant incidents there or elsewhere in the immediate area of the capital. Saigon police and allied troops were already on full alert for developments in the second wave, which dwindled after its opening with rocket and mortar attacks on 47 centers and a few ground assaults across the country Sunday.

Intelligence advisers reaching the U.S. mission said Viet Cong of Kien Hoa Province, in the Mekong Delta, had been told the second wave would run to the end of February, ordered them to supply maximum reinforcements for a new battle for Saigon, and said that the aim was to destroy the city. The Communists were estimated to have 10,000 to 15,000 men within a day's march of Saigon, including units of the 7th North Vietnamese Division and the 5th and 9th Viet Cong divisions. Far more allied troops are close at hand. Communist crews kept up their widely spaced shelling of Saigon's Tan Son Nhut air base, losing four rounds of rocket or mortar fire Tuesday. U.S. military spokesmen said one round exploded between two runways, causing neither damage nor casualties, and the others fell just outside the perimeter. Tan Son Nhut, one of the busiest airports in the world, handles both military and commercial traffic for the South Vietnamese capital. The base has been attacked several times in the course of the war, but has become a prime target since the Viet Cong launched their lunar new year offensive at the end of January.

South Viet Steps Up Mobilization Scheme

SAIGON (AP) — The government has accelerated its partial mobilization scheme in the face of intensified communist attacks, and hopes to bring 65,000 more men under arms by the middle of the year. This seems doubtful unless the government can lower the desertion rate and decrease its casualties this year. The government has had difficulty keeping its armed forces up to 770,000 men counting all paramilitary and police forces. The mobilization plan, decreed by president Nguyen Van Thieu last October and pushed ahead of schedule after the Communists began their offensive three weeks ago, will attempt to increase the military force to 835,000 men. Basically, the plan lowers the draft age from 20 to 18, recalls some reservists, limits discharges, and recalls reservists is limited. Twenty-year-olds are being drafted and as soon as that age group is exhausted, 19-year-olds will be called, probably in late April. Youths of 18 will be called when the 19-year age group has been inducted. The narrow deferment system will make it tougher for men to avoid the draft. Deferments for business or professional reasons are canceled, and they are restricted in the cases of education and religion. Students cannot study abroad unless they obtain scholarships in a field of study beneficial to the nation.

Prime Minister Pearson Seeks Confidence Vote

OTTAWA (AP) — Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson said Tuesday night he will seek a confidence vote Wednesday to try to reverse a major parliamentary upset suffered by his Liberal government while he was on a Caribbean holiday. Returning to Ottawa on Tuesday, Pearson announced the government will bring a motion to the House of Commons to establish "without doubt" whether it has the confidence of Parliament. The House met earlier and adjourned in 2½ minutes Tuesday, giving Pearson a chance to regroup his forces. The prime minister met with his Cabinet and Liberal members of Parliament who were called urgently back to Ottawa. Forty-seven of them had been absent Monday night when a government income tax surcharge bill was voted down 84-82 by the House. The bill's defeat was considered an expression of nonconfidence in the government—a situation that requires it to resign or win an immediate pledge of faith in Commons. Pearson, who rose at dawn for a flight back from Jamaica, reportedly faced opposition to calling a confidence vote from his Cabinet's younger members. Informants said they were willing to risk a general election and reasoned that any other course would make it appear the Liberals were clinging to power. Asked to comment on the situation, Pearson replied: "Not a word." His foreign secretary, Paul Martin, refused to discuss the crisis and said: "I don't know, I just work here."

The issue was complicated by Pearson's reduced personal power. He is 70 and has announced he will retire this spring. A leadership battle has developed within Liberal ranks with party members maneuvering for position in the April 4-6 leadership conference. Both Canada's major opposition parties, who teamed up to defeat the tax measure, called on the Liberals to resign. The Conservatives and the New Democrats acknowledged that Pearson was within his rights to call for a vote of confidence. The Liberals hold 130 Commons seats against the 132 commanded by the New Democrats, Conservatives, Creditists, Social Creditists and Independents.

Billion Dollar Tax Package Clears Congressional Barrier

WASHINGTON (AP) — A billion dollar package of President Johnson's tax proposals cleared Tuesday the congressional barrier that still halts his requested boost in income taxes. The House Ways and Means Committee approved a bill to extend present automobile and telephone service excise taxes that otherwise would drop soon and to speed up the collection of corporate income tax. These measures are estimated to be worth $1.1 billion in extra revenue during the remainder of this fiscal year, ending June 30 and $2.66 billion for the following year. Johnson also wants a 10 per cent surcharge on income taxes to produce $10 billion or more a year against an estimated $20 billion deficit for 1969. But the committee continues to sit on that proposal. However, it did vote to include in its report on the excise taxes a statement, still to be written, that approval of these does not necessarily mean discarding the rest of Johnson's proposals. Highlights of the bill approved Tuesday, and expected to go to the House for a vote next week: The automobile excise tax, instead of dropping from the present 7 per cent to 2 per cent April 1, 1968, and then to 1 per cent Jan. 1, 1969, would continue at 7 per cent through 1968 and 1969. During 1970 it would be 5 per cent, during 1971, 3 per cent, during 1972 1 per cent. It would drop off entirely Jan. 1, 1973. The telephone excise tax, instead of dropping to 3 per cent April 1, 1968, would continue at the present 10 per cent through 1968 and 1969. The rate would be 5 per cent during 1970, 3 per cent during 1971 and 1 per cent during 1972, dropping off entirely Jan. 1, 1973. These extensions are estimated to bring in $306 million extra revenue during fiscal 1968 and $2.66 billion next year.

SITE OF NEW MARINA RAMP

Stone and dirt fill marks the site of the new boat launching ramp now under construction at the Kinzua Marina. Cy Denmark, a spokesman at the Marina, reports the concrete ramp will be 380 feet long and 30 feet wide and should be ready by boat launching time this spring. It will be usable at the spring pool to 13000 feet above sea level of the Allegheny Reservoir. At the direct left of the ramp site is a 100 by 1000-foot parking lot which accommodates 167 cars and 75 trailers. It is complete except for surfacing, Denmark reports. (Photo by Mansfield)

McCarthy Is Expected to Pull Substantial Vote in N.H.

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic party officials expect Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy to pull a substantial vote in New Hampshire's March 12 primary. But they are already looking beyond that as they gear up for the party machinery for President Johnson's re-election campaign. "It will not surprise me if he (McCarthy) gets 30 to 35 percent of the vote," one party source said Tuesday. "He is there, he is on the grounds." The source said there are no plans for either the President or Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey to visit New Hampshire. But the source went on to say that even if the New Hampshire vote results in a victory for McCarthy over forces organizing a write-in campaign for the President, this will not alter Johnson's plans to stay out of the party's pre-convention battles. There is still a possibility Johnson's name will be entered against McCarthy in the April 30 Massachusetts primary, but the source called this unlikely and said one of the state's leading Democrats would undoubtedly be given the assignment. While Johnson has given no public word that he is in fact a candidate to succeed himself, all party planning is proceeding on the assumption the Democrats will present again a Johnson-Humphrey ticket next fall. While party officials are concerned at the possibility of riots in Chicago by groups seeking to disrupt the convention, they feel authorities there are making adequate plans to handle any trouble.

Philly Still Wants to Dump Its Trash Somewhere Else

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — America's fourth largest city still wants to dump some of its trash into somebody else's empty holes and Philadelphia's City Council now seems ready to try the unique experiment first suggested 30 years ago. "If we don't do something quick we'll soon be buried in our own junk," said Council president Paul D'Ortona. "The present situation is difficult," said Streets Commissioner David Smallwood. "It will become perilous in years ahead."

Council's Streets and Services Committee held a 50-minute hearing Tuesday on a contract with Eastern Land Reclamation Co. that guarantees disposal of a minimum of 260,000 tons of trash annually at a cost of $1.4 million.

The rubbish—shredded, baled and chemically treated—would be shipped by Reading Railroad and dumped into abandoned strip mines in Pennsylvania's anthracite region.

Smallwood said an estimated 1,200 tons daily—five days a week—amounts to 25 percent of the city's total trash.

The streets commissioner said the city's eight incinerators now are hard-pressed to burn up all the accumulated rubbish, doing the job at about $7.50 a ton. The proposed contract, running as long as 40 years with an option for another 40, will cost $5.39 per ton to start. Negotiated price adjustments are permitted after two years.

Donald M. Kerr, president of Eastern Land said two transfer stations will be erected—each costing about $1.6 million and capable of handling 600 tons daily. The railroad will move five trains nightly to the dumping areas.

Francis Bonner of Hazleton, Pa., which is in the anthracite region—protested the proposal. "Our people are proud," said Bonner. "They don't want to be known as the garbage can of the East."

Another opponent was John G. Sensenit, an associate of Milton Shapp, the unsuccessful Democratic candidate for governor in 1966.

Sensenit, who said he was speaking for Shapp, said "the solution of a problem that will help one region at the expense of another is no solution at all."

The plan may work to the detriment of other parts of Pennsylvania and this is unworthy," Kerr said his organization, working on the idea for the past 29 months, already had arranged 35-year leases with owners of 11 open pit mines in seven townships in Schuylkill, Lackawanna and Northumberland counties.

No final action was taken. Chairman Joseph Hersch of the Streets and Services Committee said the ordinance likely will be reported to the full council later this month for final action.

Romney Wants Draft to Rely On Volunteers

EAU CLAIRE, Wis. (AP) — Gov. George Romney said Tuesday that draft laws should be changed "to rely extensively on volunteers."

The Michigan Republican, winding up a two-day Wisconsin sweepstakes at the state's April 2 presidential primary, interrupted his steady fire at President Johnson's Vietnam war policy to criticize recent changes in selective service.

At a news conference, and again in a statement, Romney said that new regulations which would end deferments for first-year graduate students and for occupational and skilled categories are "not a move in the direction of a more equitable system."

"This is a move away from two desirable goals," Romney said. "Reversing the order of the draft calls to start with younger men, and providing greater uniformity in the standards used for determining deferments."

At a Rice Lake stop, as he concentrated on the northwest section of the state before returning to the New Hampshire campaign, Romney said he had sent telegrams to several senators urging that they support cloture in the civil rights debate in the Senate.

The move lost Tuesday afternoon when it failed, by nine votes, to muster the two-thirds majority required to shut off debate.

"It is important to do all possible to demonstrate to those still suffering from social and racial injustices," the governor said, "that needed changes can be made without lawlessness, violence and civil guerrilla warfare."

H. Rap Brown Arrested For Breaking Travel Ban

NEW YORK (AP) — H. Rap Brown was arrested in a West Side Manhattan apartment Tuesday and accused of making an unauthorized weekend trip to California to promote his militant Black Power crusade. The journey could cost him $25,000 in forfeited bonds.

Brown, 24, head of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, currently is in the toils of federal courts in New Orleans, La., and Richmond, Va. In both cases, his travel had been restricted by federal edict.

Brown was arrested here at the request of the New Orleans federal court. Because of the West Coast trip, the government wants Brown jailed on a pending federal gun charge there, and his $15,000 bail forfeited.

At the same time, the U.S. attorney's office in Richmond, Va., wants to put Brown behind bars there, and to foreclose on a $10,000 bond. That case involves a riot last summer in Cambridge, Md.

The lanky, mustached Brown, a firebrand among national Negro leaders, appeared Saturday at an Oakland, Calif., rally to raise money for a Negro accused there of killing a policeman. The government said he made a similar appearance in Los Angeles before returning to New York.

A New Orleans federal indictment charges that Brown last August carried a rifle with him on a flight from New York to New Orleans and back, while under federal indictment in the Maryland rioting.

At the time of his arrest, Brown said in reference to President Johnson as head of the federal government: "If he is worried about my rifle, wait until I get my atom bomb."

Federal Judge Lansing Mitchell placed Brown under $15,000 federal bond in New Orleans last September. The judge ordered that Brown be restricted in his movements to New Orleans, New York or SNCC headquarters in Atlanta, unless he obtained specific permission to travel elsewhere.

On Monday, Mitchell ordered Brown's bail revoked and said his West Coast trip "flagrantly violated conditions for bail."

The Cambridge, Md., case involved racial rioting there after Brown made a speech July 24, A

Teachers Participate In Workshop

Over 100 elementary teachers participated in a workshop held recently by the health, physical education and recreation department of the Warren County School District.

The purpose of the workshop was to study active and quiet elementary classroom activities in an effort to add the teachers to improve the instructional content of the district's elementary physical education curricula.

Harold Miller, supervisor of the department, and Miss Sandra Smith, to whom three school officials look for secretarial service, produced an extensive teachers' manual for the elementary physical education program that was partially incorporated in the workshop.

school building was burned during the disturbance.

Brown subsequently was charged by Maryland officials with inciting to arson and riot.

Primary Fight Between Clark and Dent Assured

HARRISBURG (AP) — A primary fight for the Democratic nomination to the U.S. Senate between incumbent Joseph S. Clark and U.S. Rep. John H. Dent was assured Tuesday with the passing of the deadline for withdrawals.

Dent, a six-term congressman from Westmoreland County, said through an agent in Philadelphia that he was staying in the contest because of the broad-based support his candidacy has generated.

Clark has been backed by Democratic Party leaders for reelection to a third term.

The deadline for withdrawal was 5 p.m.

Auditor Gen. Grace M. Sloan, the Democratic organization candidate for state treasurer, also was confronted with a pri-

Democrats Schedule Activities

A resolution and motion setting up rules for the formation and naming of any clubs or organizations using the name Democrat or Democratic in the title was passed at the February meeting of the Warren County Democratic Committee, held Monday evening in the Central Labor Temple in Warren. As a result, all organizations presently using the name in their titles are subject to review by the executive committee of the county Democratic committee.

Future Democratic plans include meetings open to all persons, especially Young Democrats and teenagers. It is planned to hold a pair of these meetings in March and April with the time and place to be announced, and speakers will be featured.

At one of the meetings, it is hoped to have Max Gabreski, of Oil City, the Democratic delegate to Con Con from this area, tell of the proceedings there; and at the other meeting, the area of public relations in politics will be outlined by Fred Cusimano, of Warren, who has been active in several campaigns in Erie county and who is a candidate for delegate to the Democratic National Convention this summer.

County Chairman Tom Conway made several new appointments to the executive committee of the county Democratic committee. These included Fred Cusimano, Ray Ralston, Gerald Deutschlander, and L. N. Schuler.

mary contest when her opponent, Mrs. June Reynolds of Pittsburgh, also refused to withdraw.

Mrs. Reynolds was a leading backer of Milton Shapp, the Democrats' unsuccessful candidate for governor in 1966.

The major personality to withdraw was U.S. Rep. Elmer Holland, an eight-term congressman from Allegheny County, who was dumped by the Pittsburgh-based Democratic organization.

Another familiar figure to bow out was former Sen. John J. Haluska, D-Cambria, who had filed for his old Senate seat now occupied by Republican Richard J. Green.

Democratic State Chairman Thomas Z. Minehart, meanwhile, filed a brief with the State Elections Bureau challenging the bid of Republican John B. Hannum for the Democratic nomination to the State Superior Court.

Hannum, serving an interim appointment on the appellate court, had cross-filed for both the Democratic and Republican nominations. He is backed by the GOP for a full 10-year term.

Minehart's suit challenged signatures Hannum filed in nine of the 10 counties he listed in his nominating papers.

Minehart maintained that the papers from Fayette, Luzerne, Washington, Northumberland, Chester, Greene, Westmoreland, Beaver and Lackawanna counties were faulty in that they contained insufficient signatures or the signatures of registered Republicans.

Only Hannum's Philadelphia filing escaped the Minehart challenge.

Elections Bureau Director C. Russell Welsh said the challenge would be turned over to Commonwealth Court for adjudication.

Damage Totals $150

Property damage totaled $150 in a traffic accident on the old Enterprise-Tidioute road in Southwest township Tuesday morning.

State police trooper Max J. Bizzak stated a car driven by Nancy Vincent, RD 1, Grand Valley, went out of control, skidded sideways and struck an oncoming truck operated by Edwin L. Thompson, 705 W. Spruce St., Titusville.

Police said there were no injuries in the 9:20 a.m. mishap.

Con Con Splits on Judges

HARRISBURG (AP) — Constitutional Convention delegates, sharply split on the issue, voted down Tuesday two amendments that would have ripped a merit selection system for statewide judges out of a court reform plan.

One proposal to retain the present system of choosing judges in partisan elections was narrowly defeated on a 75-75 vote, however, and its backers said they would try again Wednesday to push through a new version of the amendment.

Under convention rules, a tie vote on a proposed amendment is considered a rejection.

The convention then rejected, on a 79-76 vote, an amendment that would have given the governor unrestricted freedom to make statewide judicial appointments, subject only to a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

Rejection of the two amendments preserved a Judiciary Committee recommendation that statewide court vacancies be filled by appointment by the governor, who would be required to choose one name from a list of nominees submitted by a special judicial qualifications commission.

After their initial appointment statewide judges would be required to seek full 10-year terms in uncontested, nonpartisan elections.

During Monday's session, the convention had voted down a plan that would have given voters in each judicial district the option of adopting a similar merit plan for selecting local judges.

To Hell With Dickens

"Did it ever strike you on such a morning as this that drowning would be happiness and peace?"

These are the words of Charles Dickens. We do not know when he wrote them, but they may very well apply today—or do they?

The present picture and the glimpse of the future is certainly not a bright one from many standpoints.

It has been a cold winter here at home, marred by deaths, fires and other mishaps. There have been grievances over highways, zoning and government. On the state level a battle raged over hiking taxes to pay for better roads, schools and other necessities. Currently the Constitutional Convention is winding up a tiring session to revise the Commonwealth's ancient laws.

On the national scene the Johnson

Administration is having its doubtful moments over support from Congress for all of its social programs and at the same time fighting a war in Vietnam in which thousands of our boys are being killed. It is an issue to which there seems no immediate end.

Taking just a quick glance at the future it looks like another hot summer of racial riots around the nation coupled with a crucial presidential election. Not to mention what may happen to our present "glowing" economy.

But this is America. We are too rich with opportunities to think of the words of Dickens. It may be a gloomy morning, but with guts and convictions we always have the opportunity of accomplishment—whether it is happiness and peace or not.

Firepower vs. South Vietnam

WASHINGTON — The sad truth of Vietnam has seldom been clearer than it is in the decision by the American military command to "use all the firepower needed" to root Communist forces out of Hue and other Vietnamese cities.

So, as the Associated Press describes the situation, "heavy bombs, aircraft rockets, naval gunfire, napalm, tear gas and all the usual ground weapons from eight-inch howitzer to tank guns" are being used in heavily populated city areas and—in Hue—against the historic inner city Citadel, from which Vietnamese imperial governments once ruled.

American military men are not happy about this, they know the result is bound to be thousands upon thousands of homeless refugees adding to the limitless weight of human misery in Vietnam, as well as rising totals of civilian dead and wounded.

"It is a terrible thing to have to do, but we have to do it," a Marine officer said of the decision to use "all the firepower needed" against parts of Hue held by the North Vietnamese.

There appear to be two reasons why that officer and his superiors believe they "have to do it." The first is a shortage of manpower in the area around Hue and in the northern provinces generally, a shortage mostly due to the opposing concentrations of forces at the Sanh. This manpower shortage means that the Americans and South Vietnamese cannot root out the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong invaders without heavy dependence upon the sheer destructive force of American firepower.

The second reason is that nothing less than victory, in these situations, is considered acceptable. "We could not permit them to believe that they could seize populated areas and escape our firepower," an American official explained, if they could do that, they would obviously take advantage of the opportunity.

This is not, therefore, an endless unloading of violence by American soldiers; it is what they see as a necessary evil, and one in which the dreadfully militaristic South Vietnamese government concurs fully.

But if the situation is viewed in something other than military terms, it appears quite different. How is the Saigon government, for instance, ever going to win the "hearts and minds" of its people if it not only approves the American destruction of South Vietnamese cities but—according to press reports—actually wants the Americans to do the job more quickly with even more firepower?

What kind of a commentary upon this extraordinary "government" and upon the years of American assistance, is it if the insurgents not only can seize these urban areas by surprise, but can hold them with such desperate and deadly tenacity that the only alternative is to destroy the cities themselves? Even if the destruction of these homes, businesses and treasured places fills South Vietnamese hearts with hate toward Saigon, have the authorities in that city or their American supporters shown any ability to cope with the thousands of refugees, the wounded, the sick and the helpless who existed in South Vietnam even before the Vietnam winter offensive began in the cities?

The inescapable facts are that the South Vietnamese government and its American ally are unable to protect the cities and their populations from being hit. When the attacks came, they proved unable to protect them without the destruction of whole areas and the mass production of dead and homeless civilians. And what all the firepower has done is deadly work, neither Saigon nor Washington will be anywhere near able to take care of the human tide of refugees and despair that will be the result.

If this is a victory for Saigon, a defeat would be for the world to behold. If this is what President Johnson demands that Americans stand and fight for, what heart-breaking tragedy must happen before he realizes that fighting alone cannot eradicate his policy?

The sad and terrible truth of the decision to blow up South Vietnamese cities in order to defend them is that neither Washington nor Saigon has anything to rely on but firepower. With that, they can destroy South Vietnam but they can never save it from Communism or anything else.

JIM BISHOP

The Medicine Show

The peaceful little town of Mount Vernon, New York, publishes a monthly. The editors of "Congress Reports" put out a $1.50 soft cover book called "The Medicine Show." The book is a collection of letters that, after the first 50 pages, I didn't know whether to shoot my doctor or my pharmacist, or the pharmacist's wife.

The American Medical Association, I feel, should either refute the findings of this book, or admit that it has not kept America properly informed. "The Medicine Show," for example, states: "The only significant difference between the medical profession and the layman is price. All medicine is priced much the same. If this is true, then the doctor is a fully nurtured and educated man, and the layman is a fool. The AMA employs a full-time relations coordinator to advise physicians on how to best help to pay for their medicine. The book says that Americans lose a billion dollars a year because of the AMA's policy. In addition, they spend $10 million for child support. This is a lot of money. The book says that the AMA is a powerful lobby in the nation—the freeway lobby.

No one ever suspected, when Alar Boyd was first recommended by his old University of Florida friend, Sen. George Smathers, that Boyd would turn out to be a lobbyist and an opponent of lobbyists. But he was. The freeway lobby hates him, secretly is working to undermine him. It claims he must go.

What Secretary Boyd has done to arouse the lobby's wrath is to maintain that freeways are not the sole solution of the transportation problem. Mass transit, subways, high-speed trains, even monorails, must be considered. Secretary Boyd also argues that Negro communities are not the only ones to be relocated to make room for suburban commuter freeways. Wealthier communities should have to move too. Specifically he has held up the North-Central Freeway in Washington because it was shifted over from a high-bracket residential community to a low-bracket area, because the white residents pack more political punch than Negroes do.

"We should not just tear up the homes of poor people and Negroes," says Boyd. "We ought to make a determined effort to put freeways where the traffic wants to go. We're going to have to find a better way to do it than say we're going to take the property of poor people and let everybody else alone."

This caused panic and pandemonium among what is called the "Road Gang." This is the group of lobbyists, consultants, engineers, trade association officials which represents the cement, tire, gasoline and automobile industries, plus heavy construction, which have made millions from the National Highway Act by which the federal government pays 90 per cent of the highway bill, the states 10 per cent.

"If these people around Boyd had their way, there wouldn't be a paved street in Washington," said Harold Wirth, Washington lobbyist for Firestone Tire and Rubber. Wirth, incidentally, is also chairman of the Highway Users' Conference and chief spokesman for the "Road Gang."

Linked with the North-Central Freeway is also the Three Sisters Bridge across the Potomac, to carry commuters into Virginia. Secretary Boyd has held this up, because, he argues, the whole transportation plan for the District of Columbia must be considered as a package and the Three

Significant Local Battle

WASHINGTON — Military problems in the Far East have obscured one of the most significant battles here at home. It's the battle of a Florida Cracker, Alan S. Boyd, now Secretary of Transportation, to protect Negro and poor white communities against one of the most powerful lobbies in the nation—the freeway lobby.

No one ever suspected, when Alar Boyd was first recommended by his old University of Florida friend, Sen. George Smathers, that Boyd would turn out to be a lobbyist and an opponent of lobbyists. But he was. The freeway lobby hates him, secretly is working to undermine him. It claims he must go.

SYLVIA PORTER

Save on Taxes—VII

(In collaboration with the Research Institute of America) You should have no trouble getting together the total amount of charitable contributions you paid by check or made in cash for which you received receipts. But say you made charitable gifts to churches, schools, museums, etc., in the form of property, such as used clothing or furniture, paintings, art objects. You are entitled to take a charitable deduction for these contributions, too. Your problem, though, is how to get the fair market value of the property at the time you contributed it, because this is the dollar figure which you can take as your charitable deduction.

A 1967 court decision gave contributions such as your assist in getting a higher property valuation and a correspondingly bigger contribution deduction. The Treasury said that when you contributed used clothing, furniture, etc., you could value them only at the price a dealer in used clothing or furniture would pay—a view cutting the amount of your contribution far below what you could take if you valued the used property at the price a retail customer would pay.

A '67 circuit court case held that you can value your second hand property contribution at the price a retail buyer would pay; you are not stuck with the dealer's lower price to you. But if you plan to follow the court's view on your '67 return, recognize you may have to fight the Treasury.

As you go through your checks to determine your charitable deductions, don't automatically assume that every check made out to a charitable organization is deductible in full. Last year, the Treasury issued a sharp warning that a payment to a charitable organization is not a deductible contribution to the extent you get something of value in return—even if the organization labels the entire contribution a "donation."

Thus, be more careful with such contributions this year. The Treasury may get rough with individuals who deliberately deduct payments to a charity which aren't real contributions.

Here are some "donations" which the Treasury points out are not real contributions:

+ You pay a charity $15 for a theatre ticket which has a box office price of $10. Your deduction is $5—not $15.

+ You make out a check to a charity for a ticket labeled "$5.50 donation" which admits you to a luncheon-entertainment. No part of the payment is deductible. You merely bought a lunch ticket.

+ You get a brochure from a charity listing articles which can be obtained by mailing in "donations." These aren't donations; they are purchases.

The Treasury also points out that the fact that you don't use a theatre, luncheon, etc. ticket but instead give it away to an employee or friend or relative doesn't permit you to deduct the full amount as a contribution. Even though you meant to make a donation and never intended to use the ticket, you still can deduct only the amount paid in excess of its value. So in the future, if you are asked to buy a ticket to a charitable event which you don't intend to use, it may be wise tax strategy to refuse the ticket and just make a straight donation. Or if you wish, donate to another charity the ticket you buy.

A popular method of raising money for a charity is through the sale of raffle tickets. And most of us who buy do so with the prime purpose of making a charitable contribution and with the understanding that our chances of winning are remote.

But regardless of your motive, if you take the raffle tickets, you cannot get a charitable deduction for the money you paid. In 1967, court decisions agreed with this Treasury view.

Keep this in mind when listing your charitable deductions for 1967 and in 1968, consider making outright contributions of the money instead of buying raffle tickets.

Tomorrow: Camille.

Everyone Talks, But . . .

HARRISBURG — Cutting a budget is about like Mark Twain's description of the weather: everybody talks about it but almost no one does anything about it.

And it seems particularly true of items like the one listed as "Aid for the Disadvantaged" in Governor Shafer's current record-setting $1.90 billion budget.

This money is used as a subsidy for Operation Headstart, Neighborhood Youth Corps programs and the like. Being against money for such projects is like being against motherhood, the U.S. Marines or Dr. Spock—before he got involved with Viet Nam.

Let's look at this "Aid for the Disadvantaged"—just to see if it isn't possibly a place in which the budget might be cut.

For the 1965-66 fiscal year, $1 million was appropriated for this project.

Nothing was appropriated in the following 1966-67 fiscal year.

Last year, the Governor budgeted the figure at $1 million again. At the urging of Representative Herbert Fineman, House Democratic Floor Leader, who wanted the entire amount eliminated, His Excellency reduced the amount to $500,000.

(Incidentally, Mr. Fineman received more bricks than trophies for his efforts at cutting the budget.)

What is the situation now? Not a cent of the $500,000 appropriated for the current fiscal year had been spent by December 31, 1967—halfway through the fiscal year! In fact, $584,200 was still left unspent from the 1965-66 fiscal year!

At first blush, it might seem that money left unspent is a good thing. But it must be emphasized that for every cent "appropriated," there must be a penny of taxes collected.

It would not have taken many $500,000 cuts in the budget to make up the amount collected under the amendment to the sales tax reducing the meal exemption from 50 cents to 10 cents. This tax will bring in only $9 million.

This column has commented before on the phrase that Governor Shafer used in his budget message—"Truth in Spending"—and how parts of the speech are at a bit of variance. Here's a variance that's interesting: In his speech, His Excellency said that the "level of administrative costs remains at approximately $150 million."

The administrative costs are listed in the budget under the category of "general government" and sure enough, there on page 16 of the Budget is the figure $150,210,023 listed as recommended for the 1968-69 fiscal year.

But the item listed in the column next to that, the amount available for 1967-68, is the figure $143,228,551—yet the level of administrative costs remain at approximately $150 million," His Excellency said. Somehow or another the Governor's budget "message" just doesn't seem to jibe with his budget "document."

Actually, far from keeping administrative costs at the same level, the Governor has increased them by $15,981,472—or better than 11 percent!

Some of the increases for the various departments are even larger. The Governor's Office (where economy is supposed to begin) is up 20 percent. This column pointed out earlier that 56 additional employees were hired for the Governor's Office last year. It now appears that another large increase in personnel is contemplated, although no increases in personnel were listed for the Governor's Office in the budget.

Either that—or someone is going to get an awfully big pay raise.

Another interesting budgetary item (and another that would be difficult to oppose) projects an increase in the State Police appropriation.

(Everyone is in favor of more State Police and everyone is in favor of adequate salaries for our State Police.)

Under Criminal and Law Enforcement, the Governor has listed an increase of $6.6 million for the State Police. His explanation "an additional 300 troopers costing $1,396,361 during 1968-69 are recommended to improve traffic patrol and criminal law enforcement."

But what is the other $6.6 million for?

Letter To The Editor

Times-Mirror
Warren, Penna.

Dear Mr. Editor,

Thank you for your recent editorial in which you called the attention of your readers to a near-accident to a child approaching Market Street School.

As I have gone through the streets of Warren and through the surrounding area I have noticed many possible traffic hazards to children, as well as adults.

On Buchanan street between Division street and Fifth there is a dip which causes a car approaching from Fifth to go out of view of the person who may be preparing to cross Buchanan at the intersection of Buchanan and Division streets, yet there is neither a caution sign nor a stop sign to warn the driver approaching the corner by this route. Children do occasionally cross at this point on their way to school, and from a child's height an approaching car might be even less visible.

Recently at another point along Buchanan street, I saw a child fall spread-eagled downhill across the street where it is slanted, and it seems possible that a child could slip across the road at several points here where it might be slippery.

Recently I have observed some automobiles failing to heed stop signs on both Prospect and Buchanan streets, where they intersect with Jefferson, where children cross frequently.

There is a traffic light on Market street where on certain days a glare of sunlight makes it very difficult for a pedestrian to observe a change of signals.

There are narrow streets where closely parked cars create a hazard for bicyclists darting from behind them. I have also noticed near-misses of accidents for bicyclists at the intersection approaching the front of Jefferson School.

Anyone who has ridden on some of the streets of North Warren on a foggy, icy morning can appreciate the danger to children who also use the street to walk to school because they have no sidewalks.

Here, too, I have noticed women with young children walking along the highway with not even a curb rail to protect them from a skidding car.

The road between Warren and North Warren was the site of an accident to an aged man who was walking there not long ago, and yet presents a hazard to anyone who might wish to walk or bicycle by this route. I believe that a question: some means of having a continuous sidewalk along this route should be pursued and not lightly dropped.

But all of these hazards may be few in comparison to others which your readers might report. It was some time ago that I watched a bus driver stop his bus on one of the busiest traffic lanes of Warren, and escort a small child who was not far beyond the toddler stage, back out of the road to safety. I also know of another case where children were observed making a game of darting into the street to make cars stop and were called to the attention of passersby by a passerby. If one person can observe a similar hazard to safety, it seems reasonable that there are many more.

A child or an elderly person, there must be a way to help them who are in danger. I believe that children should certainly be taught to cope with the problems of their own including traffic problems. But I believe that some of the dangers I have indicated are probably others you might consider, can be eliminated to lessen the number of chances which these children need take.

I wish to express my appreciation of your effort to help, and, as well, hope that you will continue this effort. And, as I have indicated, I wish to express my appreciation to drivers who, against odds, drive safely and avoid accidents.

Sincerely,
Sylvia Porter

Two Prominent State Officials Die Unexpectedly

HARRISBURG (AP) — Two prominent state officials — Adj. Gen. Thomas R. White and legislative researcher Guy W. Davis — died unexpectedly within minutes of each other early Tuesday.

The 55-year-old White, a Philadelphia lawyer and career officer in the National Guard, was stricken at his quarters at the Indian Gap Military Reservation, 20 miles east of Harrisburg.

Davis, 67-year-old veteran director of the Joint State Government Commission, research agency of the state legislature, collapsed in the cafeteria at the State Capitol, Davis was pronounced dead on arrival at Harrisburg Hospital.

Both men were the apparent victims of heart attacks. Both had been about their normal affairs on Monday.

Gen. White informed a caretaker he was ill, but White himself called the military dispensary and was given first aid there. Officials said he died en route to Good Samaritan Hospital in neighboring Lebanon.

Davis, a resident of Folcroft, Delaware County, had been associated with the Joint State Government Commission since 1948. His widow and a daughter, Miss Rida Davis, survive.

White was appointed adjutant general in 1963 by then Gov. William W. Scranton. He was reappointed to the $25,000 cabinet post in 1967 by Gov. Shafer.

White's reappointment became the subject of controversy when a group of retired National Guard officers charged that White had bypassed Maj. Gen. Henry J. Fluck, then commander of the 28th Division, in making certain staff assignments. This, White denied.

White and Fluck both testified at a closed session of a Senate committee considering White's nomination. White ultimately was confirmed. Fluck resigned and was succeeded in command of the 28th by Brig. Gen. Nicholas P. Kafkalis, one of the two assistant division commanders.

White enlisted in the Army Reserve in 1933 and became a second lieutenant in 1936. Even though he held the commission, he enlisted as a private in the 103rd Engineers, Pennsylvania National Guard, in 1939.

He advanced steadily in rank during World War II and became a lieutenant colonel in 1946. He served in Pacific theaters during the war.

White was graduated from the University of Pennsylvania and the Temple University Law School.

Surviving are his widow, the former Bertha Stockburger of Philadelphia, and four children: Thomas Jr., Richard, Sally, and William White.

PUC Puts Off Planned Airlines Rate Hike

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Public Utility Commission suspended for up to six months Tuesday a proposal by five airlines to increase intrastate fares between 5 and 95 cents beginning March 1.

Allegheny, Trans World, Eastern, United and Lake Central airlines sought PUC approval to round off existing fares on all trips up to 750 miles to the next even dollar to simplify and speed up the ticketing process. Such an application has already been approved by the civil Aeronautics Board.

The PUC said it intended to conduct its own investigation of the fare proposal.

The Candidate Speaks

Why Run?

By Robert Kusse

(Editor's note: Robert Kusse, a Republican candidate for the General Assembly, has been invited to write a column each month expressing his views before the April primary election. The TMO has been publishing a monthly report from Assemblyman William Allen, who is seeking reelection, on his activities. Mr. Kusse's first column follows.)

WHY RUN?

Ever since I announced my candidacy for the General Assembly quite a few people have asked me: Why do you want to run for public office? Perhaps this is a good time to answer that question, and at the same time give the citizens of Warren and Forest counties a little better insight into my feelings, thoughts, ambitions, and goals.

During most of my adult life I have had a desire to hold public office; to help make decisions that will determine the kind of future that my country and its people will have. I feel very strongly about this, because my experience as a business man plus my observations from reading, listening, and talking with others who are deeply concerned with our future, have given me a strong awareness of my responsibilities and duties to my fellow man, my family, and myself.

I believe that when the Lord put us on this earth He intended that we should not only constantly strive to improve ourselves, but also that we should do everything in our power to make this a better place when we leave than it was when we entered. A good example of the progress that each generation makes in this world can be seen in my own case: My grandfather, as a boy in Holland, received very little formal education; my father left school in the 6th grade to support his widowed mother; in the last years of the Depression I managed to achieve two years of college credits while working at Eastman Kodak Company by attending the University of Rochester at night and on weekends; next year I expect to see one of my daughters receive her college degree. I'll also be proud to see my twins graduate from Warren High School in June, and enter Thiel College this fall. Isn't this what we all want - to see our children and their children making progress, and in effect, getting ready to do their part too toward making this a better world?

A few people have told me that because I've lived here only four years perhaps I'm not fully aware of Warren's and Forest's problems. True, I wasn't born and brought up here, but does that make me any less aware of or less interested in our problems? Are our problems here really any different than they were in the small Michigan town from which I came? Taxation, highways, education, indebtedness, care of the elderly, recreation, war, standards of living, and economic development are not problems of just the people in western Pennsylvania; they are EVERYONE'S concern. In fact, isn't it just possible that I'm MORE aware and MORE interested than someone who lived here all his life? When I decided to enter the automobile business it was only after much careful deliberation and thought that I picked Warren as the place where I would like to raise my family; to establish my home; to invest my savings in business. I was confident when I made these vitally important decisions that they were the right ones, and my faith has been justified.

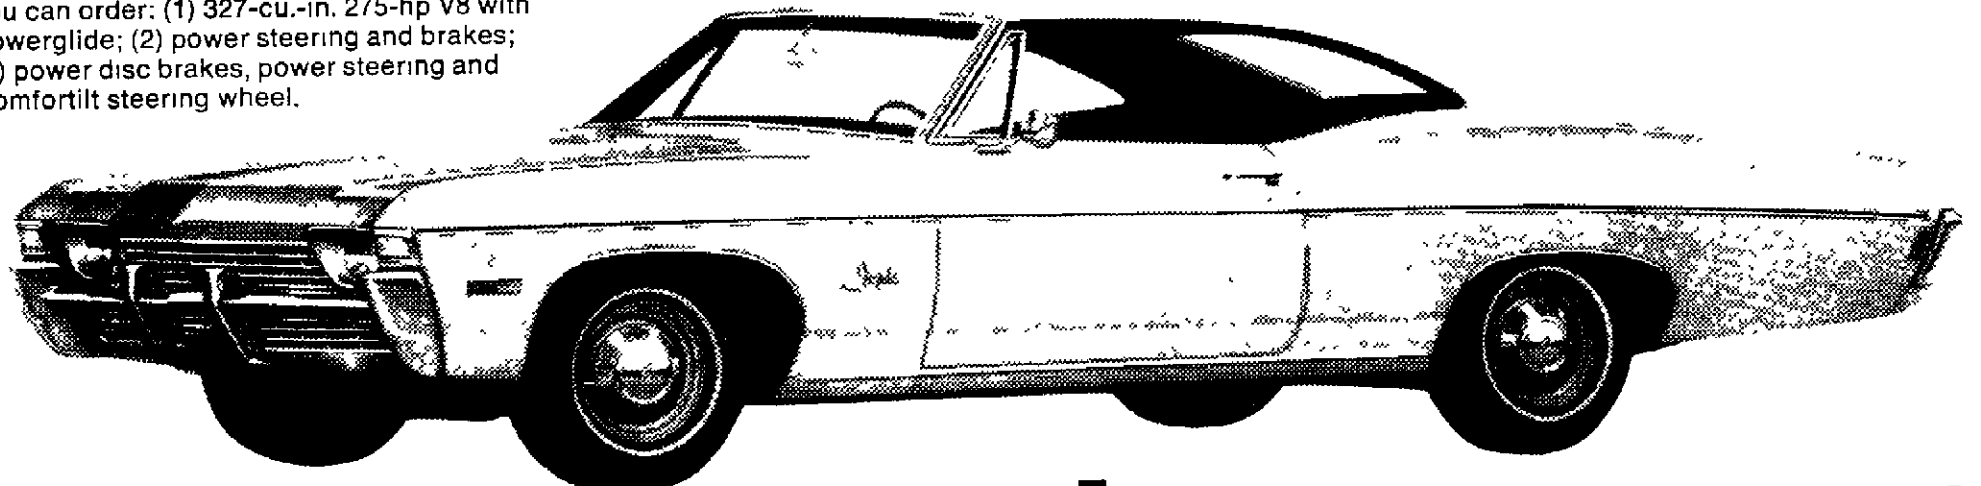

Warren has been good to me. You have accepted my family and me into the community. I have been able to actively participate in service organizations, fund drives, clubs, Chamber of Commerce, Retailers Committee, and educational programs. Last fall the people of Conewango Township elected me as their supervisor. Now the opportunity presents itself to be a candidate for the Republican nomination for Representative in the state legislature. My family enthusiastically supports my decision to seek office; I can arrange to have others operate my business; so I can wholeheartedly devote full-time to serving you.

If you agree that we need a business man to represent us in the legislature, and if you approve of my attitude toward the office, I will be pleased to have your support in the April primary.

First Round Pairings for NCAA Tourney Set, Houston vs. Loyola

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Boston College was picked to replace Duquesne and unbeaten, top-ranked Houston drew Chicago Loyola as its first opponent in the first round pairings announced Tuesday by the NCAA for its 30th University Basketball Championships starting March 9.

Duquesne rejected a bid from the NCAA to await an NIT bid. Houston, 23-0, faces Chicago Loyola 13-7, in the 7 p.m. game at Utah, March 9 with New Mexico State, 18-4, meeting the Big Sky Conference champion at 9.

In the first round at Rhode Island, it's a single game, Boston College, 13-7, vs. 4th-ranked

Three Accept NIT, Duquesne Waits Bid

NEW YORK (AP) — Army, Oklahoma City and Fordham were picked Tuesday to play in the National Invitation Basketball Tournament in the New Madison Square Garden. The Cadets moved into the NIT after rejecting a bid to participate in the NCAA's University Division tourney.

The Garden tournament opens March 14 and closes March 23. Army has the best record among the first three teams selected for the 14-team tourney. The Cadets have won 18 and lost 4. Oklahoma City has a 17-6 mark while Fordham is 14-6.

John Back, the Rams' coach, is the chairman of the NIT's selection committee.

Earlier in the day, the NCAA said that Army had been invited as an at-large entry but had refused.

St. Bonaventure, 19-0, at 7:30 p.m. EST.

The Ivy League champ meets the Middle Atlantic champ at 1:15 and the Southern Conference champion meets St. John's of New York, 15-6, at 3:15 in an afternoon first round double-header at Maryland.

Kent State of Ohio will host two first round games, with the Ohio Valley Conference winner facing Florida State, 17-5, at 7 p.m. EST, and the Mid-American Conference champ facing 10th ranked Marquette, 19-3, at 9.

Winners of the seven first round games at March 9 will advance into the four NCAA regionals at North Carolina State, Kentucky, Wichita and New Mexico March 15-16, along with the Southwest and Western Athletic conference champions, both of whom were given first round byers by the NCAA.

These nine will be joined in the regionals by seven more conference champions, all of them automatic qualifiers. Then the four regional champs play at Los Angeles March 22-23 in the final round of four.

Casper Honored

NEW YORK (AP) — Billy Casper's victory in the Los Angeles Open golf tournament and other fine performances during the month earned the golfer the January award Tuesday in the S. Rae Hickok Pro Athlete of the Year poll.

Ski Club Meets Thursday Night

The Warren County Ski Club will meet Thursday night at 8 p.m. in the Youngsville Ski Lodge to make final plans for this weekend's Ski Carnival.

Two movies of skiing will be shown following the business session.

Forty members and guests attended last week's meeting and it's expected that Thursday's attendance will top that. All members and interested persons are urged to be present.

TRAIL RACER

A competitor starts down the slope during last Sunday's Trail Races at Youngsville Skiways. Finals will be held this weekend at the Ski Carnival and a giant slalom race has also been scheduled for Sunday. The event will include a full slate of activities from Friday evening through Sunday.

Olympic Boycott Gathering Steam

NAIROBI, Kenya (AP) — The boycott of the 1968 Summer Olympics in Mexico City picked up momentum Tuesday, and three Scandinavian politicians urged Norway, Sweden and Denmark to reconsider the decision reinstating South Africa in the Olympic family.

Kenya, Sudan and Iraq announced their withdrawal from the Games starting Oct. 12 in protest of the vote by the International Olympic Committee last week to readmit South Africa.

So far 15 countries have declared themselves out of the Games, several others have indicated they will pull out too, and Soviet Union officials have said they have withdrawal under consideration.

The other 11 who have said they will not participate are Ethiopia, Algeria, Uganda, Tanzania, Ghana, Guinea, Mali, Gambia, United Arab Republic, Syria and Somalia.

Trinidad, Zambia, Singapore and Malaysia have indicated they will not compete either.

South Africa was suspended by the IOC in 1963 because of the country's racial policies.

It was reinstated by the IOC at Grenoble, France, last week when it gave assurances that it would field an integrated team, traveling and living together, wearing the same uniforms and marching under the same flag.

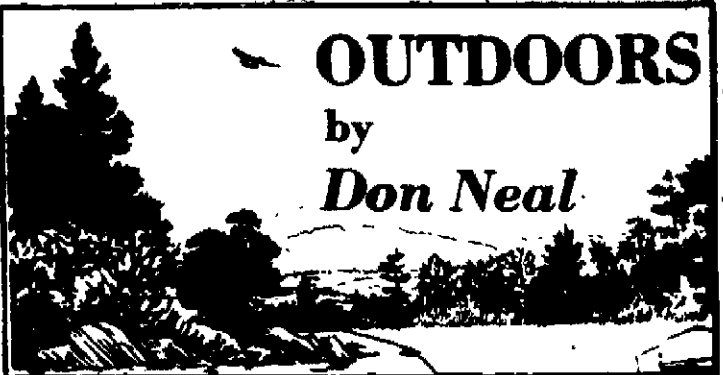

But the South Africans continued their ban on competition between whites and non-whites and integrated trials within the country.

Meanwhile in Mexico City, foreign minister Antonio Carrillo Flores said the Mexico City Organizing Committee acted correctly in inviting South Africa to participate. Another official said Mexico voted against reinstating South Africa.

Carillo Flores said he hoped all invited countries would realize that Mexico was merely fulfilling its international commitments.

Rafael Solana, press chief for the Organizing Committee, returned Tuesday from Europe and said Mexico was among 26 countries that voted against South Africa.

On The Spot

Am I on the spot? You can bet your little old sweet life I am. For I have to take issue with the interests of my blood-brothers, the fishermen, as these interests relate to the future use of the Akeley swamps.

A recent note from George Wagner suggests that fishermen of the area band together and institute a drive to have a small dam placed on the Conewango as a means of improving fishing. He suggests that the dam be built in the vicinity of Akeley so that its impounded waters would flood the swampy area to a depth of about six feet. George states that this land isn't any good for anything else and the flooding of the swamp would create some tremendous fishing. He is right, it would.

Just to imagine what the fishing would be like if such a dam existed is enough to send the average fisherman into ecstatic fits. Lurking in the cover that would be provided by flooded swamp growth would be bass, muskies, walleyes and northern of tremendous proportions. They would grow to such enormous size by feeding on the schools of crappies and bluegills that would thrive in such suitable environment. And husky channel cats would fan their tails in the currents of the deeper runs just waiting for a baited hook to come their way.

The swamp has already established a reputation as an ideal spawning place for fish of many species. So there's no doubt about it—George's suggestion has a lot of merit. The only thing is, I just can't climb up on the bandwagon and start pounding a drum in support of the idea. The Akeley swamp to my way of thinking, has a much greater potential than could be realized through turning it into a fisherman's paradise.

In the first place, Akeley swamp is a very unique natural area. This fact was recently recognized when Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Grandquist generously donated a portion of the swamp to the Northern Allegheny Conservation Association so that it could be preserved in its natural state for the enjoyment and enlightenment of future generations. When dedicated, this portion of the swamp will be known as the Thomas Jefferson Mahaffey Wetlands Conservation Area.

The area's uniqueness stems from the fact that within its soggy boundaries one of the great dramas of nature is being enacted—a pre-glacial lake struggles to preserve what little remains of its once majestic coverage of the entire Conewango valley. But with unyielding persistence vegetation moves in to create areas of dry land and crowd it out. Hundreds of years ago this area was lake bottom, today it is a swamp, a few hundred years hence it will be a bog, and eventually it will be dry land.

Yet this interesting phenomenon of nature and the opportunity to observe and study it, is not the swamp's only desirable feature. In its waters, on its dry land, and on the marginal portions that can neither be described as land nor water an abundance of wildlife exists. Species that would be widely separated because of environmental conditions under normal circumstances thrive in close association throughout the tangled forest growth of the swamp area.

The time will come when the citizens of Warren County will realize the full value of this half-submerged plot of land. Students will be taken there to learn about the processes of nature, and nature lovers will gather from distant points to explore its exciting depths. Eventually it will become one of the county's most attractive recreational attractions. That is, if we ever do become aware of the potential it offers.

For this reason, I would object strenuously to any attempt to flood it out of existence. We can create fishing lakes at most any place we choose, but we could never reestablish this phenomenal natural area once its vegetation had been killed off and its wildlife driven away by flooding.

In fact, I don't know but what the time is ripe to suggest that our county officials consider the possibility that even greater portions of the swamp and the river bottom lands above it should be preserved. It is my understanding that the state is presently receiving funds from the Land and Water Conservation Fund Act (through the Bureau of Outdoor Recreation) for the purpose of acquiring lands with recreational potential before they are used for other purposes. The Akeley swamp should fit into this category. Especially as there seems to be no other state lands of a similar nature being considered for acquisition at this time.

It would be great to have at some time in the future a corridor-like nature area that would extend between the Akeley swamp at one end and the Audubon Society's nature area (on the Conewango just above the state line) at the top.

Sorry, George, but that's the way I feel about it.

In 1890, the entire deer population of North America was estimated at 500,000. Now 76 years later, the deer population in New York alone is about 375,000, plus another estimated 350,000 in Pennsylvania. The hunter paid the tab for most of this increase.

TMO Pulls Comeback In Victory

JAMESTOWN, N.Y.—Trailing 33-30 at intermission, the Warren Times-Mirror and Observer basketball team outscored Gold Star 36-22 in the second half here last night for a 66-56 Taft Recreation League victory.

Three TMO cagers scored in double figures, led by ex-Gannon College star Ron Isackson with 24. Dave Berdine rattled the cords for 18 and Sam Koebley hit 11.

Gold Star's Bob Johnson took game-high honors with 27 points and Ron Nelson popped 14.

Warren is now 7-11 in loop action.

'67 Deer Hunt Was Successful

HARRISBURG (AP) — Pennsylvania deer hunters had their third most successful season of record last fall, the State Game Commission reported Tuesday.

The harvest totaled 144,415 white-tails, eclipsed only by the 1940 figure of 186,575 in 1940, and the 1938 total of 171,662.

For bucks alone, hunters set a new record kill at 73,268, bettering the previous high mark of 65,150 in 1966. The 4,899 bucks taken last fall in Potter County set an all-time antlered deer record for a single county.

Following Potter, the leading buck counties included Clearfield, 3,455; Centre, 2,950; Elk, 2,633; and Lycoming, 2,772.

Eagles, Knights Triumph

Shantzman Blow 9-Point Lead

Three of the four county basketball squads triumphed last night in their respective leagues as the cage sport moved into its final week of play. The Eisenhower Knights were victorious over West Forest, 73-70, and the Youngsville Eagles also triumphed in UAVL play, downing East Forest, 60-54. Tidioute's battle in the UAVL turned out for the worst as the Pleasantville Falcons topped the Bulldogs, 110-64. Sheffield romped in the Allegheny Mountain League over Ridgway, 111-65.

Record-Breaker

A fabulous performance by Wayne Swanson sparked the Sheffield win as he poured in 22 field goals and netted one foul to score 45 points, his highest ever. Swanson's 45 total broke the Sheffield High record set by George Petruney, 43 points. The Wolverines really layed it on, outbounding the Elkers and keeping the pace of the game moving to earn their victory. Mark McGuire and Rick Grubbs carried honors in Wolverine rebounding as McGuire pulled down ten and Grubbs collected eight.

The Wolverines opened the first period with a 13-point lead, 35-22, and gained three points in the second stanza, 16-13, to close out the first half with a 16-point edge, 51-35.

The Orange and Black returned from the lockerroom to net their biggest scoring margin, 29-10, entering the final stanza ahead, 80-43.

Sheffield's attack never let down even when Coach Nick Creola started substituting as the Wolverine reliefs posted a 31-20 score over the Elkers in the final period to net the victory 111-65.

Two other Wolverine cagers hit in double figures for the night. Jeff Sealise with 16 and Grubbs on 17. The Elkers' pace was set by Dan Pierce with 28 and Roy Robertson, who netted ten.

Wolverine shooting never let down as they netted 19 of 24 foul shots for a 79-percent average and swished 46 of their 76 field goal shots for a 61-percent reading. Ridgway went 65-percent, 11 of 17, from the foul line and 48-percent, 27 of 56, from the floor.

The victory moves Sheffield to a 4-2 reading in the AML with an overall 17-4 slate. The "Little" Wolverines triumphed in the preliminary, posting their nineteenth win of the season, 64-57.

The Wolverines move back onto the hardwood Friday night for their final game of the season against county rival Tidioute on the Sheffield court.

Eagles All Way

The Youngsville Eagles stuck to fast breaks, coming on strong in the opening periods of each half, to net their victory over East Forest, Denny Walton led the Eagle win by pouring in 23 points on ten field goals and three foul shots.

The Eagles opened the contest by notching a four-point edge over the Bears, 13-9, on a tight defensive stanza that found both squads running glue-tight zones. Most of the points were scored in the last minute.

East Forest played tighter ball, however, the second quarter and only allowed the Eagles a one-point edge, 12-11. The Red and White entered the locker room carrying a five-point lead, 25-20.

The third stanza was much the same. Youngsville grabbed a four-point margin in the quarter, 19-15. However, the final period found the Bears becoming more aggressive in an effort to collect the victory.

The Bears rallied in the last three minutes of play, but Youngsville held out and went on to victory, 60-54.

George Nelson secured the boards for the Eagles and also netted fifteen points, Gary Wood

Warren Hi Tankers Fall in Final Meet

ERIE—Warren Area High School's fledgling swim team dropped its final dual meet of the season to Academy here last night, 68-28.

The Dragons managed only two first places, one an outstanding performance by senior Mike Curren in the diving event. Curren scored 130.8 points in his final appearance for WAHS.

Scott Daelhausen took the other first, covering the 100-yard butterfly ahead of the pack. No time was available for his effort. Warren's 400-yard relay team finished ahead of Academy's entry, but was disqualified for a false start.

In addition to Curren, other seniors in their final meet were Eldo DeLong, Rick Dies, and John Seastead. Tom MacLean, Tony Carter, Jim Hunter, Matt Voigt and Daelhausen will compete in the Regional meet at the University of Pittsburgh on Saturday.

Coach Dave Clifton praised his seniors and predicted a better season in 1968-69.

Beaty Posts 40-29 Rout

TITUSVILLE — The Beaty junior high cagers, behind Craig Young's 14 points, trounced the "baby" Titusville Rockets, 40-29, here yesterday.

The "baby" Dragons posted a slim two point margin in the first half, 18-16 and then really came on strong in the final stanza, outscoring Titusville 22-13 to triumph.

Rick Freeburg poured in ten points in the Beaty win. Clark was high for the Titusville cagers with 14 points.

In the preliminary game, the Warren combined seventh-and-eighth grade squad downed their Titusville opponent, 48-44. Dan Phillips was high in the contest, netting 17 points for Warren.

Shantzman Blow 9-Point Lead

By LARRY G. STEELE

Warren Area High School's basketball team literally handed visiting Titusville a victory last night, failing to the Rockets in overtime, 79-76, before one of the smallest crowds of the season.

The Dragons blew a nine-point lead in the last five minutes of regular play and the Rockets knotted it at 71-71 at the buzzer, then outscored the Blues and White 8-5 in the three extra minutes to win.

The collapse ruined an otherwise fine effort by the Shantzman, who held the lead throughout most of the regulation time. They trailed briefly in the second period, but never by more than three points, and seemed in command heading down the home stretch.

Then the bottom fell out. Ahead 68-57 with 5:21 remaining, Warren started forcing shots against the Rockets, who cleared the errant attempts off the boards, made sure of their shots and slowly whittled the Dragons' lead away.

Only the foul shooting of Randy Jones, who played one of his finest all-around games of the season, kept Titusville from winning it in regulation time. After the Rockets had outgunned Warren from the floor six to one in the next four minutes, Jones converted three of four fouls to keep the Dragons ahead, 71-69, with 27 seconds left.

With 11 seconds showing, Rocket ace Jim Romaniszyn drove for the tying two-point shot and was fouled.

Against a background of jeering, whistling, booing Warren fans, Romaniszyn missed the free throw—he had converted seven-of-seven previously—but his basket sent the game into overtime.

Warren held the lead once in the extra period, but fouls cost them the ballgame.

Gene McNamara broke the deadlock after 27 seconds of the start of the overtime on a tip-in as the Rockets had four straight shots at the basket.

Jones fed Dave Cobb underneath with 2:18 left to make it 73-73, then Ed O'Neil turned in a steal and drove all the way for a layup to put the Dragons in front, 75-73, with 1:58 remaining.

George Barker, who came off the bench to have a hot night for the Rockets, knotted it at 75-75 on a swisher from the side with 1:30 showing and Steve Hampton converted two foul shots at the 46 second mark to put Titusville ahead, 77-75.

With 16 seconds to go, Dan Krumm drew an offensive foul and made the first on a one-and-one situation to narrow it to 77-76. Romaniszyn cleared the second attempt and was fouled. He calmly sunk his first shot of a one-and-one, then added the second to put it out of reach, 79-76, with 13 seconds remaining.

Dan O'Neil threw up a desperation 30-footer as the game ticked away for the Dragons, but it was far off the mark and Titusville had the victory.

For the Rockets, it was almost too good to be true. Their situation seemed hopeless until Warren elected to take the shot rather than hold on to the ball. They took advantage of the break.

It was a heartbreaker for the Dragons, who up until their final breakdown, had played excellent basketball. They took an early 11-point lead, then held off a Rocket rally and held a two-point advantage at intermission, 39-37.

The third stanza belonged to the Dragons. They built their lead back up to ten points after five-and-one-half minutes, 53-43, before the Rockets put on another surge to trail by five, 60-55, heading into the last eight minutes.

Dan O'Neil hit on a jumper to open the final period and when Krumm drove the length of the court for a layup, Warren led by nine, 64-55 with 6:25 left.

After that, Titusville made eight field goals against one field goal and five free throws for Warren, sending it into the overtime.

For the first 26 minutes of play the Dragons looked like world-beaters. Ed O'Neil, Jones and Rick Nasman controlled the boards, Dave Cobb had another excellent night from the field, scoring 17 points, Jones had 16 and the O'Neil brothers each had 14.

Except for occasional lapses, the defense was adequate, although Titusville was given the outside shot and proved deadly accurate. They held a 31 to 28 edge over the Dragons in field goals. Warren converted 20 of 29 free throws and the Rockets hit 17 of 23 from the foul stripe.

Captain Hampton and George Barker turned in outstanding performances for the visitors. Hampton connected on nine from the floor, most from the 20-foot mark, and added three foul shots for 21 points. Barker was almost equally deadly, pumping in eight field goals and two fouls for 18.

Romaniszyn shared high-game honors with Hampton on 21 points, but his percentage was well below that of the Rocket captain's average.

The victory kept Titusville in contention for the Section II crown with first place Meadville, who slipped past Corry last night, 53-52, to retain a one-game edge.

The defeat by the Dragons, coupled with a loss by Franklin to Oil City and a Cranberry victory over Rocky Grove, created a four-way tie for third place in the loop, all teams with 6-7 records.

The Dragons travel to Oil City on Friday for the final game of the season.

The Warren junior varsity also fell last night, taking a 56-47 whipping by the Little Rockets. Rob Loranger was high for the Little Dragons with 16 points and Larry Spence had 12. For the Rocket jayvees, Allan scored 19 and John-son had 17.

Uncertified Substitutes Authorized in Florida

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — The State Cabinet authorized hiring of uncertified substitute teachers Tuesday in an emergency effort to reopen Florida schools closed by a massive walkout by teachers.

And, as the partial shutdown threatened heavy damage to the state's economy, several school boards went into county courts seeking injunctions to force the teachers back into classrooms. Most of the nonworking teachers said they had resigned.

Mayors Endorse John Lindsay's Urbanaid Plan

SCHENECTADY, N. Y. (AP) — The mayors of 12 relatively small New York State cities unanimously endorsed Mayor John V. Lindsay's urbanaid plan Tuesday.

Schenectady Mayor Malcolm E. Ellis, host to a meeting of the mayors, said the 12 would seek legislative support for Lindsay's urbanaid plan.

The announcement followed a one-hour meeting here at the Van Dyck Restaurant at which Lindsay pressed for support of his proposal.

Lindsay's urbanaid plan would guarantee the state's cities a 27.5 per cent share of the state income taxes, replacing the per capita aid program now on the books.

After the conference, Lindsay said he did not know how his proposal would be received in the legislature. He admitted that the idea "might be a little ahead of its time."

Lindsay has made several trips to various municipalities to urge support for his program. It has received a lukewarm executive response in Albany.

Attending the conference, besides Ellis and Lindsay, were Mayors John P. Gombulski of Amsterdam, Paul W. Lattimore of Auburn, Joseph W. Esworthy of Binghamton, Edward P. Lagonegro of Elmira, Jack K. Kiely of Ithaca, Alvin R. Ruskin of New Rochelle, William A. Valentine of Rome, Lawrence Meyer of Troy, Dominic Assaro of Utica and Richard S. Hendey of White Plains.

Lindsay indicated he would support higher state taxes if they would supply additional revenue for cities.

Lindsay flew to Albany Tuesday, then drove to Schenectady. The New York Republic said Lindsay said the mayors should not "shy away from proposals for additional state taxes, if necessary."

Lindsay told them that "the alternative is not no new taxes; it is new taxation at the local rather than the state level."

Lindsay's urbanaid plan was introduced in the legislature today, but he said in an interview that he would favor any similar plan that provided cities more money to meet their expanding budgets.

Gov. Rockefeller's fiscal experts say the mayor's plan would force them to come up with a proposal for taxes above the $494 million they are seeking to balance the state's $5.5 billion budget.

Clark Receives UMW Endorsements

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D.Pa., said Tuesday he has received endorsements for re-election from officials of the seven Pennsylvania districts of the United Mine Workers of America.

The UMW represents more than 50,000 Pennsylvania coal miners.

Clark is seeking a third term. He is being challenged for the Democratic nomination by Rep. John H. Dant, a former official of the United Rubber Workers and later a business executive.

Board Denies Collective Bargaining Request

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Pittsburgh Board of Education refused Tuesday to permit an election to determine a collective bargaining agent for the city's 3,000 teachers, setting the stage for a possible strike Feb. 29 that could cripple the school system.

The board also refused to declare March 4 a holiday to permit teachers to attend a professional seminar called by the Pennsylvania State Education Association in Harrisburg.

The board did authorize the executive board of the Pittsburgh Teachers Education Association to attend the seminar. The PSEA asked for the seminar to dramatize its demand for higher wages.

The Pittsburgh Federation of Teachers, which claims about 1,000 members in the city's schools, had requested the collective bargaining election or threatened to strike if turned down. Federation President Albert Fondy tried three times to make a statement at the board meeting, but was ruled out of order by the board president, Mrs. M. L. Aaron.

"This is incredible," Fondy said. "This is incredible." The board turned aside the collective bargaining request by a vote of 13-1, with John Feigel, a labor leader, casting the only negative vote. The seminar vote was 14-0 against.

The board said it would not designate an exclusive bargaining agent for teachers or recognize an election to pick a bargaining agent. The board also said it would not "select or choose one organization among competing organizations to represent teachers."

Richard F. Jones, board vice president, said, "When teachers strike, no one wins — but the children lose a great deal, not the least of which is a lofty respect for teachers as professionals. This is especially true of children in deprived areas."

Feigel said the question for the board was not teachers' salaries or their right to strike, but whether they should be allowed to hold an election to pick their bargaining agent.

"Even though they are professionals," Feigel said, "they are working every day for a living. We are living in changing times. I think the board is unwise in making this decision. All they are seeking is a right to vote."

Another board member, Mrs. Leland Hazard, told the board: "What is at stake is whether Pittsburgh teachers will be misled into the dishonesty which has occurred elsewhere — blue flu, fake resignations, phony seminars. I cannot believe that the American Federation of Teachers can seduce Pittsburgh teachers into such chicaneries."

In turning down the March 4 holiday request, the board said it doesn't approve of "the unprofessional nature of declaring a holiday for the purpose of dramatizing teachers' desires to the General Assembly."

"The duty of school boards," the board said, "is to serve children by keeping school open continuously throughout the term excepting national holiday observances and state vacation periods, and excepting acts of God that preclude school attendance."

The board said it would keep the schools open March 4.

Penn-Sheraton Hotel Slated To Be Sold

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Sheraton Corp. said Tuesday it's going ahead with plans to sell Pittsburgh's Penn — Sheraton Hotel.

The firm had said last week it would sell the 1,600-room hotel if the unions which went on strike Oct. 1 didn't come up with a new contract offer by Monday midnight.

Local 237 of the Hotel and Restaurant Workers, which had earlier offered to drop a proposed no-sale clause and settle for the same contract as the Pittsburgh Hilton, offered no new terms.

"Nothing has changed," said a Sheraton spokesman in Boston after the deadline passed. He said no announcement regarding any sale is expected for a while.

Mayor Joseph M. Barr's office said there were no apparent moves by either side to settle the strike. The spokesman said Sheraton talked to prospective buyers last week.

Eight or nine groups are interested in the hotel, said the mayor's office. Six or seven prospective buyers reportedly would continue to run the Penn-Sheraton as a hotel.

The hotel, the city's largest, is a key to the development of Pittsburgh as a convention center. The 144-day strike has already cost the city conventions worth over $3 million this year.

Five B&O Freight Cars Jump Tracks

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Five cars of a southbound Baltimore & Ohio freight train jumped the tracks Tuesday and hit a support beneath the heavily traveled Walnut Street bridge.

The span, carrying Walnut Street across the Schuylkill River near Center City, was ordered closed to traffic. The bridge handles an estimated 20,000 cars daily, according to David M. Smallwood, director of city streets.

Twenty-five extra policemen were assigned to the area to help reroute traffic around the closed bridge.

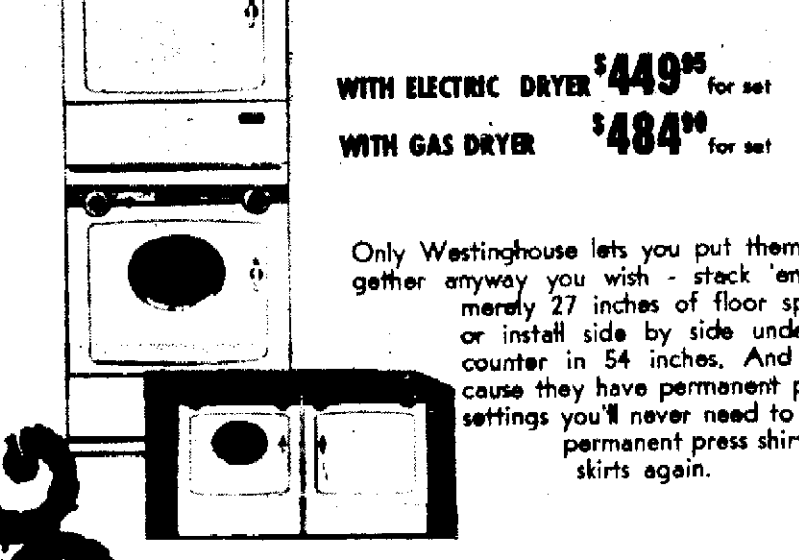

A crewman on the 148-car train said it appeared a lock on a switch had been smashed open with a brick.

Police questioned five youths found in the vicinity.

The candlefish, which is found on the Pacific Coast upward from the state of Oregon, is dried and used as a lamp by the Indians of Alaska.

ALLEN FILES PETITIONS

William W. Allen of Tidioute, former Warren County Chief Clerk and currently serving in the General Assembly, as representative for Warren-Forrest counties on February 13, filed nominating petitions for reelection to the post. The petitions were filed by Allen, center, with officials of the state election board in Harrisburg. The Tidioute assemblyman, a Republican, will be opposed in the April 23 primary by Conewango Township supervisor Robert J. Kusse.

Bills Would Modernize State Adoption Laws

HARRISBURG (AP) — Welfare Secretary Thomas W. Georges Jr. supported Tuesday two House bills that would modernize the state's adoption laws.

Eldred Woman Killed in Crash

KANE — State police in Kane are continuing an investigation of a one-car accident early Tuesday morning which claimed the life of Marsha L. Calhoun, 20, of RD 1, Eldred. Miss Calhoun was traveling east on Route 346 when her car went over the north berm of the highway and struck a telephone pole.

Police, who arrived on the scene shortly after it occurred at 2:30 a.m., reported the victim had been thrown from the vehicle and apparently had died immediately when her chest was crushed by the overturning car.

A fresh blanket of snow had obscured the car's tracks, making it impossible to determine immediately the cause of the accident.

Enactment of these bills... would enable Pennsylvania to move ahead in the practice of adoption," Georges said. "Many more children would be made available for adoption... and there would be more protection for children and parents in the process."

Georges made the comment in a statement submitted to the Senate Judiciary Committee, which is holding hearings on the proposed legislation. He was not present.

Under current law, parental rights for a child can be ended only when a child welfare agency files an abandonment petition. There must be a six-month waiting period before a court can decide on the case.

The new bills would include mental disability, child abuse, and neglect as grounds for termination of parental rights, in addition to abandonment.

Another statement, submitted by the Children's Aid Society of Pennsylvania, opposed the two House bills, but endorsed a Senate bill which is closer to the existing legislation.

Prospects Slim for Creation Of Statewide Board of Regents

HARRISBURG (AP) — Prospects appear slim again for legislative passage this year of a three-year old proposal to create a statewide board of regents for the 14 state-owned and operated colleges.

"I wouldn't be optimistic," replied Sen. Richard C. Frame, R-Venango, chairman of the State Government Committee which has been holding the bill since August of last year. Frame was queried in the wake of the recent resignations of three state college presidents — two of them reportedly resigning from policy disputes with their local state college boards of trustees.

"No one has been able to convince the majority of the committee that a statewide board of regents would make for improved administration of the state colleges," Frame remarked.

The plan to convert the 14 local boards into advisory units and transfer administrative authority to a nine-member board of regents has been kicking around in the legislature for three years.

The proposal was conceived first by the State Board of Education's Master Plan for Higher Education and promptly supported by former Gov. William W. Scranton and his successor, Gov. Shafer.

Scranton, however, failed to get the bill out of Senate committee in 1965 and Shafer fared no better in 1967. Under the continuing session constitutional amendment approved last May, the measure may be considered by the General Assembly this year if the lawmakers so desire.

What served to spotlight the legislature's hostile attitude toward the bill was the resignations of Dr. Christie at Millersville; Dr. Robert S. Carter at Slippery Rock, and Dr. Fred Bryan at Mansfield.

Dr. David H. Kurtzman, superintendent of public instruction, said Christie stepped down in light of differences with his board on the emphasis to be accorded liberal arts education at the teacher training college.

Bryan's resignation, however, was simply to accept a position more to his liking at the University of Pittsburgh, according to the superintendent.

Deadline Close For Jaycee Queen Pageant

The deadline for girls interested in entering the 1968, Jaycee sponsored, state franchised, Miss Warren County pageant is less than two weeks away with Feb. 29 set as the final day applications can be accepted.

This year's pageant is scheduled to be held at 8 p.m. April 6, at Beatty Junior High School auditorium, with prizes including clothing, shoes, jewelry, flowers, gift certificates and a large scholarship being awarded to the girl selected to represent Warren County in the Miss Pennsylvania pageant, to be held later in the year at Hershey, Pa.

Trophies will be awarded to the first and second place runner ups with a special trophy to be presented to the girl selected as Miss Congeniality. Bracelets will also be presented to each contestant.

Judges for the contest will be from out of state to provide each entrant with an equal chance of winning.

There is not much time left girls. If you wish to compete for the title "Miss Warren County 1968" either contact John Chiodo, chairman for the event, or send entry blank on Page 17 to Miss Warren County Pageant, c/o Warren Jaycees, P.O. Box 487, Warren, Pa. immediately.

Assembly Programs Set On Vo-Tech Education

In conjunction with the current study being made on the need for and scope of a proposed area technical school in Warren County, Samuel A. Marek, director of vocational technical education, has planned a series of assembly programs in all secondary schools.

These will be held specifically to point out the merits of a vocational technical curriculum, and to distribute survey material to all students in grades

8 to 12, Marek said Tuesday. The purpose of the survey is to determine what areas of instruction students are most interested in, how many might consider attending such a school, and what interest their parents might have in adult training courses.

"It is quite important that students discuss these course offerings with their parents, and that they return the completed forms promptly," Marek said. "Their interests will be a large determining factor when planning the educational program for the proposed school."

Marek will show a 30-minute film on vocational-technical education, "Where the Action Is," at the assembly program, scheduled for Feb. 26 at Warren Area High School, Feb. 27 at Beatty Junior High School, Feb. 28 at Eisenhower and Sheffield high schools, March 5 at Youngsville High School, and March 7 at Tidioute High School.

Wallace Cancels Campaign In Philadelphia by Request

HARRISBURG (AP) — Former Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace Tuesday cancelled a campaign excursion into Philadelphia at the request of city Police Commissioner Frank Rizzo.

"I am cancelling my speech in Philadelphia at the request of Police Commissioner Frank Rizzo," the third party presidential candidate said in a terse statement released by an aide.

In Philadelphia, Rizzo said he requested the cancellation "because of the national holiday," referring to a citywide observance of a "Malcolm X Memorial Day," being promoted by some groups on Wednesday.

On the holiday, according to pamphlets distributed to high school pupils, adults are urged to stay home from work or wear black arm bands, keep children home from school "and worship our Black heroes" at a number of meeting places throughout the city.

"I told him I thought he should postpone it and return another day," Rizzo said. He said he had made the request through Wallace aides Tuesday afternoon.

Wallace was in Harrisburg for an 8 p. m. speech and had planned to fly directly to Philadelphia for a campaign appearance Wednesday.

In a Harrisburg news conference, Wallace predicted he would win the presidency if he could equal the 27 million votes cast for Republican Barry Goldwater four years ago.

"Barry Goldwater was a darn good man, but he wasn't the best candidate around," Wallace said, adding:

"Barry Goldwater didn't have the strength we have," the founder of the American Independent Party continued. "If I got the same vote he received, with three candidates in the race, that would be enough to win."

Goldwater polled only 27.1 million votes as the Republican nominee in 1964 to 43.1 million for President Johnson.

Wallace repeated during his 45-minute news conference the basic tenets of his states' right campaign.

"Neither of the two national parties have indicated a readiness to turn government back to the people," he declared. "If there is a deadlock and the election goes to the House of Representatives, I would make one of the candidates make a covenant, a promise, to the people that they will turn these institutions back to the people."

Among the items he specifically cited were operation of the schools and hospitals, legislative and congressional apportionment and no open housing law, which Wallace labeled "anti-property owner statutes."

On race relations, particularly in the public schools, he declared:

"I object to government forcing people to do things they don't want to do. You can have any kind of school system you want in Pennsylvania. But they don't have to have the same thing in Alabama."

"I've been honest on race relations, others haven't. There's been too much hypocrisy on this and it's what is hurting race relations in this country. Everybody's who's honest is labeled a racist."

Wallace's chartered DC-6 aircraft was met at Olmsted State Airport by approximately 30 supporters who hailed him as "a real American."

A security detail of some 10 state policemen also was on hand as a precautionary measure. They were assigned to remain with him throughout his Harrisburg stay. Wallace also has six members of the Alabama State Highway Patrol traveling with him.

The former chief executive said he has more than the 10,551 signatures required to place him on the Pennsylvania general election ballot, but added his papers would be filed until more were collected.

He said he intended to run in every state with the possible exception of Ohio, which had what he termed a "prohibitive election law" which his camp intended to challenge.

Rouse Home Eligibility Requirements

Thomas J. Donnelly, chairman of the Commissioners of the Rouse Estate, stated recently that there is still some confusion as to eligibility requirements for admission to the Rouse Home in Youngsville.

Applicants must be residents of Warren County and may possess holdings that total no more than $500 in real or personal property. Donnelly emphasized the applicant need not own the maximum to apply at the county home.

Applicants may apply for public assistance to provide all or part of the monthly rate, the latter being paid by the guest, his family, the Pennsylvania Department of Public Welfare or a combination of these sources.

Applicants must have a physical examination prior to admission and applications can be made to the county commissioners or to Kenneth N. Greenlund, Rouse Home administrator.

No admissions are refused because of sex, color, race, creed or age.

Ashville Man Admits Break In

CORRY-A visit to Chautauque County jail over the weekend by State Police Trooper Paul Sita, criminal investigator for the Corry substation, resulted in an admission by Wilson Wynn of Ashville, N.Y., that he was responsible for a break-in at Grandview Dairy in Bear Lake.

Wynn, who admitted taking $30 in cash at the dairy store, is being held by New York State authorities on charges in that state.

A detainer for the out-of-state man has been filed, according to police.

SOCIAL

Wanderings

by Marion Honhart

THE BEATY CARNIVAL DATE OF MARCH 2nd, Saturday, is only a week and a half away now. . . . The big event, given by students at Beaty Junior High School and sponsored by the Citizenship League of the school, can boast that every club and organization at Beaty is sponsoring a booth and taking an active part under the leadership of Mike Gettig, teacher, and Gary Scalise, the student chairman. Tickets are being sold at the minimal price of 20 for $1 and may be then used for all activities. Now, for some of the fun and games. . . . There will be a record shop, shooting or target throw, fortune telling, sandbag throw, fish pond, fun house, penny toss, hobby horse, ring toss and bottle fishing. And no carnival is complete without cotton candy, pop corn, candied apples, hotdogs, pop, potato chips, candy and ice cream and delicious hot coffee. Accentuating the merry atmosphere will be carnival music, the hours will be 10 a.m. 'til 9 p.m., and this will be fun for the whole family.

ANOTHER EVENT OF GREAT FUN AND HILARITY. . . . or so I am told, not having been there myself. . . . was the Mariners' latest social event, this time a "Swinging Safari", at First Presbyterian last Saturday night. Authenticity of atmosphere was enhanced with a tree house, through which guests climbed in order to be admitted past a grinning bull's skull, into the midst of darkest Africa. . . . large shields and animals bedecked the walls; vines of twisted crepe paper alive with creepy crawlers hung from the ceiling; tribal tables were adorned with palms and authentic African artifacts, and straw covered the floor. A village trading post displayed the arts and crafts of Africa (recently brought home by a former Peace Corps Volunteer, Betty DeLong). A sumptuous feast featured Prime Beef and all the trimmings. . . . including French fried grasshoppers (that's what I was told). . . . brilliantly prepared by Chef Curly Wiles. A dazzling array of dramatic talent was revealed for the entertainment of the more than one hundred guests. The master of ceremonies was the world famous explorer, Jim "Terwilliger T. Bushman" Hill. All this led up to the great climax "The Missionary in The Pot" routine, borrowed with great dramatic license from Shakespeare's immortal Witches Scene in Macbeth. The Rev. and Mrs. Frank Churchill ably carried the plot. My informant stresses that those Mariners unable to attend the foregoing, take heart, for there will be a "Trip To The Moon" in April.

AN OPEN HOUSE will honor Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Hartley at their home in Lander on Sunday, February 25th. The hours will be from 2 to 8 p.m. and the occasion will celebrate the couple's 25th wedding anniversary, which officially falls on February 20th. All friends and relatives are invited to call.

New Members Sought For
Warren Community Orchestra

The Warren Civic Orchestra is interested in having new members of the community attend a rehearsal this evening at 7:30 in the band room of Warren Area High School. The orchestra is beginning to prepare a concert for the month of May consisting of the Mozart Overture to Così Fan Tutti, the Concerto for Two Flutes and String Orchestra by Antonia Vivaldi and the Brahms Symphony Number One in C Minor.

It is stressed by the board of directors that a member does not have to be of professional skill to play in the orchestra since it is for those who have studied instruments and wish to keep playing. The instruments in need are French horns, clarinets, bassons and string instruments.

To Speak At Grace Methodist

L. Butler Hennon will be the guest speaker at Grace Methodist Church's father and son banquet on Tuesday, February 27. Mr. Hennon is now acting assistant principal, athletic director and head basketball coach at Ellwood City High School.

Mr. Hennon who has been coaching for thirty four years has been featured in many national magazines, such as Life, Parade, Saturday Evening Post, New York Times, Sports Illustrated, Teen, Presbyterian Life, Sporting News and American Youth Magazine.

The origin of many of the teaching fundamentals of basketball has been attributed to him.

Jaycettes
Baby Sitting Course
Offered

The tremendously successful Babysitting Course, originally sponsored by the Jaycettes, is to be given again for teenagers of Warren and nearby communities. The purpose of the course is to teach babysitters how to cope with all the problems and situations that may come up in the course of an assignment.

The course illustrates how infants should be held safely, fed properly, and given comfort. It teaches sitters how to stop bleeding, to treat cuts, scratches and burns.

Instruction is also given on how teenagers can save lives by giving mouth to mouth resuscitation to children whose breathing has stopped and what to do when children accidentally swallow poison.

The course will last six weeks beginning March 2, 1968, from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m. on Saturday mornings at the First Presbyterian Church in Warren. All applicants for the course must be twelve years of age or over. A small registration fee is required.

Speakers for the course include: Dr. Lee J. Berger, Pediatrician; Mrs. Robert MacQueen, Registered Nurse; Miss Jo Ann Foggan, Teacher; Mr. Donald Thompson - Fireman; Mr. Roger Theilmann, Policeman; Red Cross Worker.

After completion of the course, all applicants will be given a test to see if they are

Christian Service
In Pakistan

An article on Christian Service in Pakistan was read by Mrs. Clarence Heald, at the recent meeting of the Beathea Circle of Epworth Methodist Church. Twelve members and one guest were present. Mrs. Wallace Wright, in the absence of the chairman, presided at the meeting.

The theme for devotions was "Sensing God's Presence" by Mrs. Heald. After a lunch, served at noon by Mrs. Thomas Thompson and Mrs. Samuel Dunning, cosmetic and shoe bags were completed for patients at Warren State Hospital. Plans were made for the program and dinner for the mid-winter picnic to be held on the 26th. The ladies of First-Salem EUB Church are invited for the affair.

Hostesses for the March meeting will be Mrs. John Anderson and Mrs. Alfred Johnson. The meeting will take place at the home of Mrs. Anderson.

Answers Your Problems

DEAR ANN LANDERS: When I was 12 my parents were divorced. I don't recall much about the divorce except that my dad said my mother was off her rocker and he wasn't going to stick around unless she went to a doctor. She refused to go and that was that. My mother and I moved to another city after the divorce. We weren't in the new place more than a week when Mom began to complain about a funny smell in the apartment. Nobody noticed it but her. She spent the days and nights disinfecting and sterilizing things. Finally she decided the smell was coming from inside the walls so we moved to another apartment.

Within a few days Mom insisted that the same smell had followed her. Last week she announced that the mystery was solved — it was the smell of plastic that was bothering her. So she threw out everything plastic — my raincoat, my boots, my scrapbooks, my camera, my luggage, the Bible — yesterday she threw out the telephone.

I am not yet 16 so I am unable to support myself because I am too young to get a job in this state. Also I know I must graduate from high school in order to get a decent paying job when I am of age. Please tell me what to do. My mother is up half the night washing, disinfecting and spraying things. She is driving me crazy. — SQUIRREL CAGE NO. ONE

DEAR NUMBER ONE: It's too bad your mother didn't get psychiatric help when your father gave her the ultimatum. She needs it.

Discuss this problem with your school counselor. It is best for a teen-ager to remain with a parent if possible, but perhaps in this case the counselor may suggest that other arrangements be made.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: My husband and I went to the movies last night with another couple. Before the feature started they showed a few short subjects. One was a brief recruiting film which pictured our boys in Vietnam saluting the American flag. The narrator then said, "Ladies and gentlemen, the National Anthem."

With that my husband jumped to his feet. The fellow with us shouted in a voice that could have been heard in the neighboring county, "Sit down, you idiot!" My husband yelled back, "You're supposed to stand up when the National Anthem is played." With that he pulled me out of my seat. No one else in the auditorium stood up and I felt like a fool — especially since they played only a few bars.

On the way home my husband said he didn't care what anyone else did — that he was sure we did the right thing and those who remained seated were not only ignorant but unpatriotic.

Please tell me, Ann, is my husband correct about this? — UPSTANDING AMERICANS

DEAR UP: Your husband is mistaken. When the National Anthem is played as background for a recruiting film it is not necessary to stand.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I'm 22, not beautiful but I've been told I am sexy looking. I have a new boss who is old enough to be my grandfather. He started out by giving me a good-morning squeeze. Now he pinches, paws and massages me every time I come in for dictation. I've tried to ridicule him into behaving, but it hasn't helped. If I hit him he'd land in the hospital. What do you suggest? — UPPACRICK

DEAR UPPA: A 22-year-old girl who doesn't want to be pinched, pawed and massaged knows perfectly well how to put a stop to it. Kwitcherkiddin.

Is alcoholism a disease? How can the alcoholic be treated? Is there a cure? Read the booklet "Alcoholism—Hope and Help," by Ann Landers. Enclose 35 cents in coin with your request and a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Do you feel ill at ease . . . out of it? Is everybody having a good time but you? Write for Ann Landers' booklet, "The Key to Popularity," enclosing with your request 35 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Firemen's Auxiliary Elections

The North Warren Firemen's Auxiliary met last week when the election of officers was held. Officers for 1968 are President, Mrs. Norman Cable; vice president, Mrs. Robert Anderson; treasurer, Mrs. Fred Lawton; secretary, Mrs. Donald Anderson; trustees, Mrs. Ray Gilman, Mrs. Raymond DeVore and Mrs. Elvis Sanden.

Under discussion was the rummage sale to be held in April and the coming Teen Hop to be held at the Community House on Friday, February 23. Also, a new membership campaign. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Mike Clark and Mrs. Walter Anderson.

Indiana Leadership School PTA Council Program

The Warren Council PTA for its February meeting heard a program based on the 1967 Pennsylvania Congress Leadership School which was held at Indiana State University, Indiana, Penna. The meeting took place in the hospitality room of the Northwestern Savings and Loan Building. Mrs. A.A. Elias, presided.

Mrs. Paul Babelek and Mrs. Glen Valentine entitled their talk "Stimulating Thoughts From Leadership Training." Mrs. Babelek is the president of the Starbrick Elementary PTA, and Mrs. Valentine is president of the Irvinedale PTA; the former covered the area of communication and reviewed suggestions for programming; Mrs. Valentine discussed procedure books and keeping PTA members informed.

Both were enthusiastic about their experience at the school and suggested that all units send as many of their officers as possible to future training programs. They noted that they were the only representatives from Warren County, while other areas sent several bus loads of representatives.

During the business meeting the following committees reported. Mrs. L. Nobles, first vice president, reported to date more than 1,000 members with most of the 17 units in the county showing an increase in membership over last year.

Mrs. H. LeMour reporting for the Educational Committee stated that the school board was most cooperative in receiving representatives from Council. The next two representatives to attend the school board meeting will be from the Pleasant and Watson PTAs.

Dr. Blair Logan reported for the W.C.E.A., giving a brief history of the Scholarship Fund. The decision was unanimous to continue the fund.

The following elected from Council to serve on the Scholarship board were: Mr. R. Andrews of Irvine for a 3-year term, Mrs. W. Harbert of Warren for a 2-year term, and Mrs. M. White for a 1-year term. Bicycle registration is forthcoming and any Units interested are to contact Mrs. P. Duliba of Warren.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. A. Allen and Mrs. P. Carnovale of South St. PTA.

The bidding:
North East South West
1♣ Pass 1♠ Pass
2♠ Pass 4♠ Pass
Pass Pass

Opening lead: Queen of ♠ South became declarer at a contract of four spades on a direct sequence of bids.

West opened the queen of clubs which East overtook with the ace. From the appearance of the dummy it appeared obvious to East that declarer's only other side loser was the ace of diamonds, for North's long suit should provide ample discards for any secondary cards South might have.

The remaining source of tricks was the trump suit and on the bidding East could hardly expect to find his partner with more than one spade honor. Assuming that West has either the king or ace of spades, it brings the defensive total to three.

East reasoned then that the setting trick could come only from a ruff and the one suit that offered such a prospect was diamonds. If West was short there, East might administer a fatal salvo on the deal provided that his timing was precisely on target.

Cashing the ace of diamonds at once and continuing the suit would succeed only if West had started with a singleton. This did not appear likely to East for, if West had that holding, he might have led diamonds at the outset.

It appeared more logical to play his partner for a doubleton so, in order to maintain a line of communication, East returned the five of diamonds at trick two. The trick was won in dummy with the six.

South diagnosed his opponents' plans; however, he was unable to avert the ruff. When West got in with the king of spades, he returned a diamond. East played the ace and led back the seven which West trumped for the setting trick.

BEATLE BAILEY

Your Horoscope By Frances Drake

Look in the section in which your birthday comes, and find what your outlook is, according to the stars. FOR WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1968

ARIES (March 21 to April 20)—Put forth your finest endeavors and carry out your best intentions now. There's nothing to stop you from scoring a dandy record! TAURUS (April 21 to May 21)—You may face some unexpected situations, some unforeseen changes. Accept all with your innately gracious manner. They could turn out unexpectedly well.

GEMINI (May 22 to June 21)—Not too much planetary help now but, if you make the best use of the Gemini's fine intelligence and willingness to forego personal desires when necessity demands, you should be able to handle all situations and hurdle obstacles easily.

CANCER (June 22 to July 23)—Admonitions for this day: Be self-confident, but not BLINDLY optimistic. Take care of personal interests, but without anxiety; avoid hypersensitivity.

LEO (July 24 to August 23)—You could be tempted to turn from a profitable to an obstacle-ridden course. Avoid, by considering the whole picture—especially where the future is concerned. No impetuosity.

VIRGO (August 24 to September 23)—Present planetary influences suggest some extra care. Make all decisions thoughtfully, study every situation thoroughly and be alert to the undesirable aspects of each.

LIBRA (September 24 to October 23)—Some hours may be trying, but here's where the Libran's innately philosophical attitude and fine sense of balance will be a big help. Don't let down in your enthusiasm even if you face disappointments.

SCORPIO (October 24 to November 22)—Don't cross bridges before you come to them, but be ready for any eventuality before it occurs. Carbitrability, "nerves" and, above all, don't lose your temper—no matter what provocation.

SAGITTARIUS (November 23 to December 21)—Note Scorpio. Your advice similar. You could cause unnecessary misunderstandings by involving yourself in the affairs of others. Avoid, too, under-evaluating others' abilities and overtaxing yourself. It's the type of day when you could try to take on JUST TOO MUCH!

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 20)—Give a little extra time to matters which have been neglected, and remain flexible in your thinking, but DON'T go to extremes. Stress your inherent good sense.

AQUARIUS (January 21 to February 19)—Don't overlook small details in your anxiety to get on with BIGGER things. Remember that details are important to the whole picture. Influences fairly generous.

PISCES (February 20 to March 20)—With a brisk start and ambition soaring, you should be able to accomplish a great deal now. Favorable Neptune influences are on your side.

YOU BORN TODAY are personable, hard-working, roundly talented—especially along creative lines. Despite the fact that you like to work on your own initiative, you can, however, follow orders "to the letter"—and willingly. Dominating factors in your success patterns: intuition, upon which you usually act promptly, ability to judge what others need and desire and general efficiency in handling responsibilities. You are generous, fun-loving, should attract many friends; may have an unusually strong interest in the occult. Birthdate of: Cardinal Newman, clergyman, writer; W.H. Auden, famed poet.

How to Keep Well By Dr. T. R. Van Dellen

To the limit of space, questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made when return stamped envelope is inclosed. Telephone inquiries not accepted. Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnoses or prescribe for individual diseases.

CARDIAC-LIKE PAINS
A middle-aged acquaintance stopped me on the street not too long ago for some curbstone advice. The man was having pain in the chest and had seen several physicians, but all said his heart was normal. He was not satisfied with their diagnoses and wanted the name of the best heart specialist in town. I recommended a few good diagnosticians.

Examination revealed that his chest pain was due to arthritis of the spine. A nerve between the second and third ribs was being pinched by a vertebral defect. This man, like many others with pain in the chest, was convinced that he had heart trouble, even though every physician he had consulted assured him the organ was normal. Pressure over the nerve root produced the pain.

But the chest contains more than the heart, and the origins of pain are numerous. Years ago, a relative of mine awoke with severe distress over the left side of the chest. He was worried about his heart, but the skin in this area was sensitive to the touch, and this does not occur in cardiac disease.

Two days later, the rash of herpes zoster (shingles) broke out. Until the eruption appeared, diagnosis was impossible. But we cannot blame the victim for being apprehensive while his physician tried to pinpoint the problem.

The chest wall houses bones, cartilages, joints, muscles, nerves, and blood vessels. These structures are easily injured and are subject to various diseases. Putting the chest wall and spine to work often points to the source of pain. This is done by asking the individual to flex or rotate the spine, to bend forward, and to breathe in and out deeply, and cough. Maneuvers such as these usually are painful when the chest wall has been injured and the cartilage is dislocated or loose. Other possibilities include pleurisy, inflammation, spasm, hiatal hernia, or diverticulum of the esophagus.

TOMORROW: Dizziness on Standing

EYEBROW PLUCKER
M.W. writes: I know a girl who plucks all her eyebrows. As soon as a hair appears, out it comes. Does this mean she has something wrong with her mind?

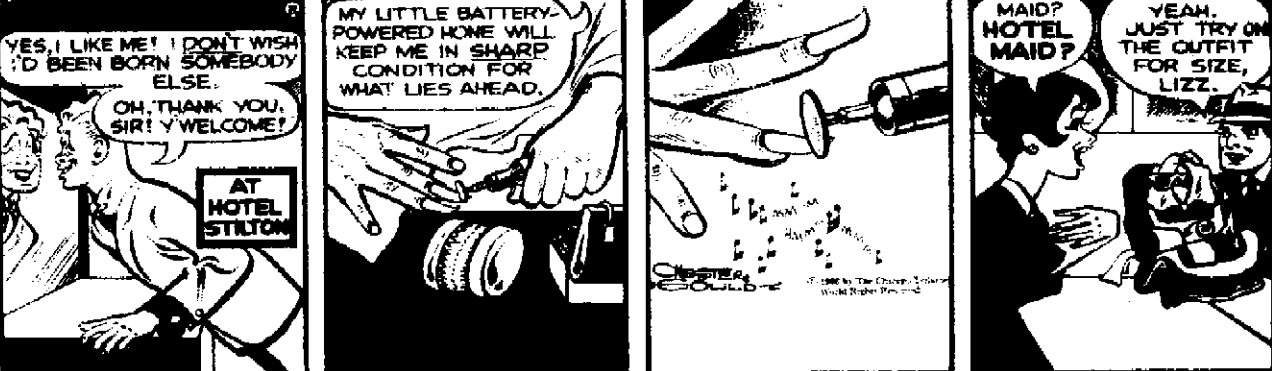

REPLY
It is more likely to be on an emotional basis. Only the woman involved or her psychiatrist can answer this question. Everyone has a reason for doing the unusual and it might be sound or unsound, and done consciously or unconsciously.

MEANING OF EXPLORATORY
D. W. writes: Does an exploratory operation mean the surgeon isn't sure what is wrong?

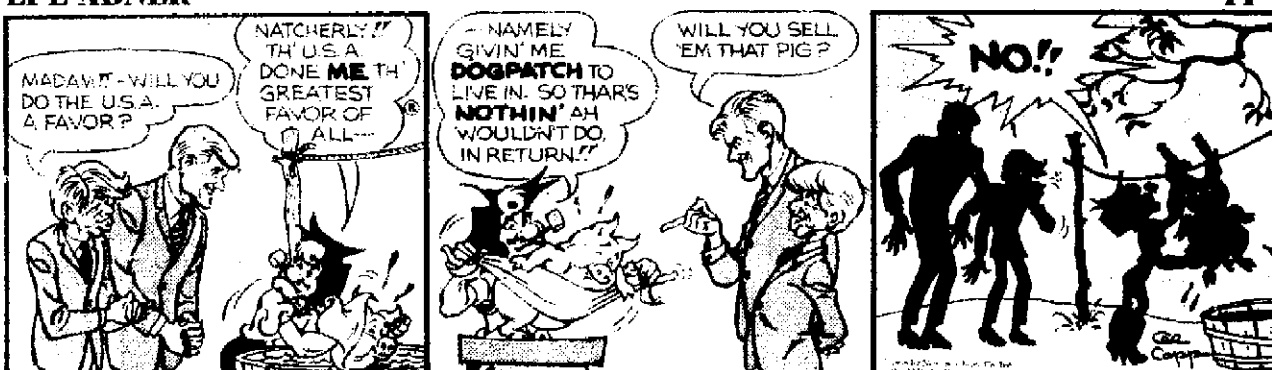

REPLY
Yes, but the situation is not so vague as it sounds. The surgeon has narrowed down the possibilities to two or three conditions and has exhausted every means of distinguishing them without operation.

TODAY'S HEALTH HINT
Coffee, alcohol, and tobacco are taboo for ulcer victims.

New Status Symbol

LONDON (AP) — Old, black London taxicabs, some of them worth less than $180, are being bought by status-seeking Americans for $600 plus $300 shipping charges, reports an automotive trade journal. The publication adds: "So why not get hold of a wealthy American with a status symbol mentality to pay you the price you paid for your car in the first place?"

Baked Stuffed Pork Chops

Invite your family and friends to dine in royal style by serving Baked Loin Pork Chops filled with a zesty cracker and fruit dressing.

Cracker cookery is being suggested by Keebler Company as part of the introduction of their new twist 'n' crisp Poly-Bag packaging for their Zesta Sal-tine Crackers. The new Zesta packages feature a practically air-tight Poly-Bag which holds eight individually wrapped packages of crackers inside the box. The Poly-Bag is opened and closed with a twist tie.

To make Baked Stuffed Pork Chops you will need:

- 1/2 cup chopped celery
- 2 tablespoons minced onion
- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 1 inner pack Keebler Zesta Sal-tine Crackers
- 1 cup diced, unpared apple
- 1/4 cup seedless raisins
- 1/4 teaspoon sage
- Salt
- Dash of Pepper
- 4 to 6 loin pork chops, 1 inch thick with pocket
- 1/2 cup apple juice

Cook celery and onion in one tablespoon butter or margarine until tender. Crumble saltines coarsely and combine with apple, raisins, sage, 1/2 teaspoon salt and a dash of pepper. Fill chops with stuffing. Season slowly on both sides in remaining tablespoon of butter or margarine. Place in a 2-quart casserole; pour juice over chops. Cover and bake at 350, 1 1/4 hours or until tender. Garnish with spiced crab apples and parsley, if desired. Recipe serves 4 to 6.

Miniature Meat Loaves

Long associated with vision and prophecy, the apricot was connected in ancient China with Confucian inspiration. Confucius, it is said, detailed his philosophy beneath an apricot tree.

Native to Asia, the golden fruit arrived with eighteenth-century Spanish missionaries on the American West Coast—and there it has flourished. It's a long mental step from Confucius to Spain to modern America, but it's fun to root for tradition in "new" ideas. —And these Spanish Gold Meat Loaves do owe something to the ancient Far East.

They start with the ground beef base of most meat loaves, then take several sharp turns from the ordinary. A binder of toasty rolled oats, itself adding subtle flavor, locks in the meat juices that make a tasty, moist loaf. Dairy sour cream is a second special addition.

Fruit-glazed in the last 10 minutes of baking, each juicy little loaf is capped with canned apricot halves. —Crowns, if you will, of Pacific Coast "Spanish gold." Try them soon—remember Confucius—and you just might detail a whole new philosophy of dinner table delight.

SPANISH GOLD MEAT LOAVES
Makes 6 loaves
Meat Loaves:
1 1/2 lb. ground beef
3/4 cup rolled oats (quick or old fashioned, uncooked)
3/4 cup dairy sour cream
2 teaspoons salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
1/4 cup finely-chopped onion
1 egg

Apricot Glaze:
1 tablespoon cornstarch
2 tablespoons firmly-packed brown sugar
Dash salt

One 1 lb. 1-oz. can peeled apricot halves in heavy syrup
1 tablespoon catsup
Heat oven to moderate (350°F)
For meat loaves, thoroughly combine all ingredients. Shape to form 6 individual loaves. Place in shallow baking pan. Bake in preheated oven (350°F) about 30 minutes.

Spoon half of glaze over loaves (see below). Bake about 5 minutes longer. Place 2 apricot halves, cut side down, on top of each loaf. Spoon remaining glaze over apricots. Bake about 5 minutes longer.

For glaze, combine cornstarch, brown sugar and salt in a small saucepan. Drain apricots, reserving syrup. Set aside 12 apricot halves for garnish. Mash remaining halves; add to syrup. Add apricot mixture and catsup to cornstarch mixture, blending well. Cook over medium heat until mixture comes to a boil and is thickened.

Surplus Food

Surplus food will be distributed to all Warren area recipients Wednesday from the food depot at the corner of Beech street and Fourth avenue. Hours are 9 a.m. until noon and 1 to 4 p.m. Friday's distribution is scheduled for the Columbus area from the community hall. Hours are noon until 3 p.m. Bring your own containers.

Lander Holds Blue & Gold Pack Dinner

The annual Blue and Gold Dinner of Pack 26 Lander was held recently in the Community house with about 125 persons attending the tureen dinner. The invocation was given by Rev. Watson. Upon completion of the meal the group sang two songs and Happy Birthday Scouts led by den mother Mrs. Kay Van Ord.

The opening ceremony was in charge of Webelos Den 1. Cubmaster Weston Wilcox, after words of welcome, introduced Mrs. Van Ord and Den 2 for a skit. It was an audience participation skit with everyone taking part.

Boys receiving advancements were: Ronald Benson, Jack Larson, Carl Hapler and Sean Abbott-Bobcat Pins; Steven Van Ord-Bear Badge; Mark Stanton-Bear Badge and Gold Arrow; Mark Van Ord-Silver Arrow; Boyd Shaffer and Jake Lindell-Recruiter Stripes.

After the advancement ceremony the cubmaster presented the new leaders their badges of office. Den leader coach to Mrs. Kay Van Ord, assistant den mother to Mrs. Betty Lindell and Webelos den leader to Lewis Van Ord.

Den 4 with Mrs. Sandra Moore, den mother, did a march around the room. The cubmaster then introduced Henry Walker of the Chief Cornplanter Council. After a few remarks, Mr. Walker presented the Cubmaster on behalf of the Pack the 100 percent Boys Life Award and the Summertime Activity Award. He also presented the charter to Nelson Moore, pack committee chairman, who in turn presented the charter to Donald Hagberg, institutional representative.

The meeting was then turned over to Donald Hagberg, who paid recognition to the pack leaders by presenting each a service star with the number of years they have served the pack.

The cubmaster reviewed the accomplishments of the past year and made announcements of coming events. He then introduced the newest den leader, Lewis Van Ord, and Den 3. Van Ord presented four boys their athletic pins. The boys were, Steven Van Ord, Jack Larson, Darryll Bloomgren and Richard Carlson. The den then had the closing ceremony.

Starbrick Motors Launches "ALL OUT" Assault On Warren County Car Market

D - DAY WED. FEB. 21st
H - HOUR 9:00 A.M.

Starting on the above date, Starbrick Motors
Will: OPEN - 9:00 A.M. CLOSE - 10:00 P.M.
6 DAYS PER WEEK

In addition, we are prepared to break the Warren Area Car Market Wide
Open, by selling any car on our lot at a Sacrifice —

WE'LL MEET OR BEAT ANY DEAL"

Why shop for a car in a greasy, run down garage, or on a dimly lit, shabby used car lot?

Instead, why not come out to Starbrick? Enjoy our luxurious, modern facilities, and receive true "RED CARPET" treatment in our warm,
(5) car Showroom — Relax and browse around — have a cup of coffee, and enjoy the background music — then receive the BEST DEAL of your life on a new 1968 Dodge.

OR ELSE

Check over the (60) spotless, Used Cars on our brightly illuminated, paved lot — no wading through mud or snow — stroll around in comfort and select a winterized, guaranteed beauty, such as one of these:
